THIRTY-SIXTH YEAR

LIMA, OHIO, THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1922

PRICE THREE CENTS

SEEKS DEATH AT GRAVE

WORK ON SEWERS BEGINS MONDAY

Jones Company to Start Construction of Interceptors

TO COMPLETE WORK IN YEAR

Bids to be Received on Two Types of Disposal

Work on Lima's million dollar sewage disposal system will be started Monday. An agreement was reached between city officials and representatives of the Fred R. Jones Co. Thursday and the contract will be signed at once, Manager Bingham said.

Every resource available will be put to work by the construction company, city officials were told, and the intercepting sewer system is expected to be completed within a year.

Bids on the two pumping stations are now being examined by the supervising engineer and an announcement as to which bid will be accepted is expected within a week, Bingham said.

Letting of the sewage disposal contract will be held up until the plans for the direct oxidation method are drawn and bids invited. It was pointed out by city officials Thursday that bids are also being asked on a plant using the sprinkler filter system of sewage disposal and no decision as to which method will be used will be made until bids are both received and compared.

Plans for the direct oxidation plant are to be drawn free of all cost to the city and the asking of bids will cost the city practically nothing, it is said.

Sale of the $663,000 bond issue authorized by the city commission will be consummated within a week or two, Auditor Evan O. Sellers announced, while the conference with the Jones company was in progress.

RESIDENTS FLEE BEFORE FLOOD

Situation in Three States is Reported as Serious

VICKSBURG, Miss. — (Associated Press.) — At least nine villages are inundated or surrounded by water and upwards of 250 square miles of farm lands is under water as a result of flood stages in the lower Mississippi and its tributaries. The villages under water or cut off by the flood are Elaine, Lambrock, Countess, Lundell, Ratio, Melwood, Lacombe, Modoc and Ferguson, all in Arkansas. Most of those driven out of their homes by the water are negroes.

DINE GIVES WAY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — (United Press.) — The swollen Mississippi and Illinois rivers today menaced property and lives. Breaking of the levee near Cairo, Ill., which will flood 12,000 acres of rich farm land, was imminent when the Mississippi rose to 27 feet.

MICHIGAN CITIES MENACED

DETROIT, Mich. — (United Press.) — The floods in northern Michigan gained force during the night and today, threatening to devastate hundreds of cities and villages along river fronts.

At Cheboygan, many miles in the outskirts were marooned by the overflowing of small streams.

At Onaway, where the Lost River took one life, several days ago, the Black River was reported rapidly rising, threatening to go over its banks.

THREE TOWNS THROWN INTO DARKNESS BY SNAKE

BERWICK, Pa. — A fourteen inch sarter snake last night threw the towns of Berwick, Bloomsburg and Danville into darkness for several hours.

Electricians were called to the lower end of Berwick by a report that a pole supporting the high tension line was on fire. After the blaze had been extinguished they found the charred body of the snake on top of the pole. The reptile had caused a short circuit between the wire and the cross-arm and there had been sufficient resistance in the snake's body to set the cross-arm afire, the electricians reported. It is believed the snake was thrown on the wire by a boy.

BODY FOUND

WARREN — A school bus driver found the body of Joe Bambariden, of Farrell, Pa., along a road near Brookfield. Eight bullet wounds were found in the body.

RIEGLER IS CHIEF MOVIE CENSOR

Director of Education Supreme Authority in Ohio

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press.) — Director of Education Vernon M. Riegel is the supreme authority in saying whether a motion picture may be exhibited within the state, Attorney General Price ruled today in an official opinion to the educational director.

The opinion holds that the both Chief Censor Evelyn Snow and the advisory board, recently appointed by Governor Davis, may approve or disapprove a picture, Director Riegel may overrule their decision, his decision being final.

PAIR FOUND DEAD

Kentuckian Kills Wife and Self, Police Theory

CINCINNATI — (United Press.) — Lew Phillips, 50, humane officer of Kenton-co., Ky., and his wife, 45, were found shot to death in bed at their home in Covington, Ky., this morning.

Covington police said Phillips shot his wife and then himself. Under his arm lay his pistol.

Dr. David Stephens, coroner, corroborated the belief of the police that Phillips had killed his wife and then himself.

Mrs. Phillips had been shot in the forehead and Phillips in the right temple.

They are believed to have been dead since Tuesday, on which day Phillips was last seen alive.

DR. MURPHY DIES

Native of Ireland, Was Practitioner Here 41 Years

Dr. John J. Murphy, 71, of 619 N. Main-st., died Thursday at 6 a. m., after an illness of ten days from a complication of diseases. For 41 years he had been a practicing physician in Lima.

Dr. Murphy was born on May 24, 1850, in Ireland and came to the United States in 1863. He was graduated from the College of Medicine at the University of Ann Arbor, Mich. In 1881 and shortly afterward located in Lima.

Besides the widow, Dr. Mabel Murphy, he is survived by a brother, Thomas Murphy and a sister, Mrs. Margaret Mulvihill, both of Toledo. Dr. Murphy was a member of St. Rose Catholic church.

Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

PLANE TO CIRCLE GLOBE WRECKED

Machine Crashes to Earth at Brooklands, England.

MAKING TRY-OUT FLIGHT

Ready to Start on Long Journey April 25

LONDON — (United Press.) — Sir Ross Smith, famous British aviator, was killed today when the machine in which he was to attempt a flight around the world crashed to the ground at Brooklands.

Lieutenant J. M. Bennett, who was to have accompanied Sir Ross on his world flight, was also killed.

Sir Ross was flying for the first time the plane which had been built for his flight around the world. It had been flown successfully but half an hour before by a pilot of the Vickers Company and turned over to Smith for a trial.

CROWD HORRIFIED
Sir Ross and his brother, Sir Keith, were scheduled to start on journey to circle the globe, from Croydon, April 25.

The crowds watching the famous aviator on his first test flight, with the special airplane, were horrified to see it go into a nose spin over the Brooklands aerodrome.

The machine whirled downward at terrific speed and crashed. Both aviators were instantly killed.

Sir Ross Smith, who was decorated with the British air cross and knighted by King George for his successful flight to Australia, was one of Britain's best aviators. His death recalls the tragic end of Sir John Alcock, who after a successful flight across the Atlantic, was killed while flying in France.

— (Associated Press.) — An eye-witness of the air tragedy in which Sir Ross Smith, famed British flyer, and Lieutenant Bennett, R. A. F., lost their lives today, told the United Press the first story of the disaster.

"The giant plane which had just been turned up for Sir Ross by Vickers mechanics, made a perfect 'cent from the aerodrome here," the witness said. "It climbed slowly in great spirals to a height of three thousand feet.

"Sir Ross was in the best of humor as he took off and waved his hand cheerily to the hundreds of workmen, mechanics and spectators who had gathered at the drome to watch the flight.

"Just like he was off for that around-the-world flight," a workman exclaimed and then something went wrong. We, who were watching, saw the nose of the big machine dip sharply toward the earth.

"Airmen at the drome said he was 'putting her into a nose dive' to test her strength, but that they oped he wouldn't go too far. The big plane had been up 15 minutes.

"It became immediately evident that something more serious than a practice glide was going on up there. The giant plane began to spin. It went from a nose spin to a spiral spin and then came dashing down to earth.

"A gasp went up as the plane crashed, striking a fence of the Brooklands automobile track. The smash was terrific and could be heard a long distance off.

"Sir Ross and Lieutenant Bennett must have died instantly."

BROTHER SEES CRASH
BROOKLANDS RACE TRACK, England. — (United Press.) — Sir Keith Smith, brother of Sir Ross Smith, who was killed with Lieutenant Bennett today in the crash of the giant plane in which they were to attempt a world flight, arrived here too late to fly with his brother, but in time to witness the disaster.

Sir Keith, overcome with emotion, saw the great airplane dashed to pieces at the end of its nose drive from a height of 3,000 feet. He was among those who rushed to the spot on the race track where the giant plane had struck a portion of the fence, and found Sir Ross dead, still strapped in his seat. Lieutenant Bennett was alive in his seat, terribly injured and died immediately after.

ARBUCKLE'S CASE UP TO PUBLIC

Freed by Jury, Comedian Awaits People's Verdict

(By M. D. TRACY)
SAN FRANCISCO. — (United Press.) — Roscoe Arbuckle, acquitted of the killing of Virginia Rappe now goes on trial before the public.

The big comedian was tremendously interested today in news from New York that the Famous Players Corporation will immediately release one of his pictures to test out his popularity.

The question of whether Arbuckle will be asked to remain in the movies will be decided by the way the public greets this picture, according to word from New York.

As he stood in the courtroom, shaking hands with the jurors and friends, Arbuckle—his famous smile once more in evidence, declared he was "simply aching to get back to the Hollywood movie lot."

The jurors, eight men and four women, thronged around Arbuckle, slapping him on the back and laughing with him.

PLANS UNCERTAIN

SAN FRANCISCO. — (Associated Press.) — Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle, film comedian, stood acquitted today after undergoing three trials on a charge of manslaughter for the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, screen actress, who was taken to a hospital fatally ill after a party in Arbuckle's hotel rooms here. Half an hour after the case was submitted to the jury late yesterday afternoon the verdict of not guilty had been returned.

Members of the jury said the actual agreement was reached by acquiescence within a few minutes after they retired to deliberate. Arbuckle said his plans were uncertain.

"I am going to take a good rest and get rid of some of this surplus flesh," explained the actor whose picture fame was associated with his weighty physique.

WILL TAKE HIS MEDICINE
"If the public doesn't want me," he added, "I'll take my medicine. But after the quick vindication I have just received, I am sure the American people will be fair. I believe I am due for a comeback."

Members of the jury in statements to the press said Arbuckle "deserved more than acquittal. Mrs. Irene Wilde, a juror, declared the jury had felt "there was absolutely no case against Arbuckle."

Another member said the comedian "impressed us as a man who was telling the truth."

District Attorney Matthew F. Brady said, "I did what I believed to be my duty from the very start of this case and gave it the best that I had. If a similar case was to come before me I would do the same thing all over again. As to the verdict, I will say that I am an American citizen and I will take my hat off to the verdict of an American jury."

The two previous Arbuckle trials resulted in disagreements.

REFUSES TO EAT

Toledo Woman, Slayer of Ex-Husband, On Hunger Strike

TOLEDO. — (Associated Press.) — Miss Catherine Simon, divorced wife of John H. Tepper, Toledo restaurant proprietor, for whose murder Sunday night she is being held in the county jail here, steadfastly refuses to partake of food. Miss Simon has not eaten since her arrest immediately following the murder.

Application for a lunacy commission to examine Miss Simon was made yesterday by her mother, Mrs. Catherine Simon, following the postponement of the preliminary hearing in police court on account of the mental and physical condition of the prisoner.

Affidavits declaring Miss Simon insane drawn in probate court last night by Miss Simon's mother and two brothers have not yet been filed and will be held up pending the outcome of the preliminary hearing which is set for tomorrow, it was announced today.

RETURN TO JOBS

Building Trades Strike at Cleveland is Called Off

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press.) — Several thousands building trades union workers, on strike since March 1, returned to work this morning under the 1921 wage scale. And by tomorrow morning, union leaders said, all of the seven thousand men who went on strike will have returned to work.

The deadlock was broken when members of the Building Trades Employers' association authorized contractors to resume operations on the old wage scale pending negotiations to begin immediately whereby the unions and contractors may reach an early agreement on wages to be effective for the remainder of the year and appointment of a public committee by the employers to work out a plan whereby future strikes and lockouts in the building trades will be prevented.

"We have been waiting for the contractors to take this step for a long time," Charles Smith, business representative of the Building Trades Council, declared today. "I am sure every union official will co-operate with the employers in their efforts to reach a satisfactory agreement and also in drawing up a contract that will prevent strikes in the future."

FORMER OUTCAST IS HONORED

Strange Funeral Held For Transformed New York Woman

NEW YORK. — (Associated Press.) — All that was mortal of Gertrude Merritt, known to the lowly of New York's East Side simply as "Chinatown Gertie," was laid at rest today in the Linden Hill cemetery, Brooklyn.

For years an outcast in the streets and alleys of the Bowery when that thoroughfare was the synonym of crime and degradation, she became, almost in a single night, a ministering angel to the sufferer.

Funeral services for the woman were held last night in the little chapel of the Rescue Society in Doyers-st., the heart of Chinatown. Men and women who knew her laughed at, a score of speakers, hardened to the ways of the underworld, told stories of "Chinatown Gertie."

These had known her when she was a Pariah, even of the lower East Side, and most of them had been led to better things by the woman whose flower-covered coffin stood before the little pulpit. It was not all laughter, however, for here and there hands unshaken brushed away tears that flowed in tribute to one who had been as strong in doing good as she had been weak following the thorn-paved path.

It was a strange funeral to many of the strangers who witnessed it. But it was a smiling, loving, remembering throng that attended. It was a little fragment out of the kaleidoscopic life of a mighty city and it was all that could be wished.

FESS WILL ENTER

To Announce Candidacy for Senate Next Wednesday

WASHINGTON — (United Press.) — Representative Simeon Fess, Ohio, will make formal announcement of his candidacy for the Republican nomination for United States senator next Wednesday, it became known today.

Representative Theodore Burton, Cleveland, another prospective candidate, is expected to say definitely within a few days what he plans to do.

Walter Brown, of Toledo, here as chairman of the congressional reorganization commission, may await Fess' announcement before deciding his plans.

Representative Longworth, Cincinnati, will not decide whether he will throw his hat into the senatorial ring until it is definitely decided whether there will be a pre-convention primary. If there is one, Longworth will go before the convention as a senate candidate.

DESPONDENT GIRL SHOOT'S SELF

Visits Brother's Resting Place in Woodlawn Cemetery

SAID TO BE GRACE DAGGON

Is in Hospital—Wound Is Not Believed Fatal

Despondent over the death of a brother who returned from overseas broken in health and mind and long unemployment which it is believed had brought her to the verge of starvation, a woman said to be Grace Daggon, 36, attempted suicide at her brother's grave in Woodlawn cemetery, Thursday noon. She was removed to St. Rita's hospital. Wounds are not believed fatal.

Arming herself with a revolver containing three shells, the girl went to the cemetery, determined to end it all and join her brother in death.

SOUGHT BROTHER'S GRAVE
A gentle spring breeze sighing in the trees sounded a requiem thru the city of the dead as she stood at the unmarked grave. She slowly turned the weapon in her hand toward her, until its muzzle was opposite her heart. Then she fired.

Laborers in the place saw her at a distance, but believed her to be one of the countless persons who come there to visit the resting places of loved ones.

A shot rang out and reverberated thru the quiet spot.

Another shot followed quickly. At a distance workmen saw the woman fall across the mound.

They rushed to her. As they approached, the woman struggled to her feet and attempted to shoot herself again.

The workmen, however, reached her and took the revolver from her hand. She was suffering from a wound in the left side. The bullet had penetrated low down. It was impossible at the moment to learn if the second shot had been effective. She was bleeding profusely.

She begged the men to permit her to kill herself.

DETERMINED TO DIE
"I cannot live, I cannot live," she repeated, again and again.

Then she became silent and refused to speak or give her name. Persons in the vicinity say they believe the girl to be Grace Daggon, who formerly resided in 531 N. Elizabeth-st.

An ambulance was called and the girl was taken to St. Rita's hospital. There she still maintained silence, refusing to talk.

Hospital authorities believe that she will recover.

Grover Daggon, a brother, a war veteran, who came back from the army an invalid, from gas and exposure, died last fall. Grace was deeply attached to her brother, neighbors in Elizabeth-st. say.

Frank Daggon, another brother, also a war veteran, was committed to Toledo State hospital August 31 by Judge Jesse H. Hamilton, of probate court. His reason had become impaired while in service.

SUPPORTED SELF, BROTHER
The sister supported herself, and brothers for a time by working in W. Kollar's grocery, 641 N. Main-st. She has been out of employment for more than a year, however, and had recently been living at 608 S. Elizabeth-st.

Police are investigating the affair, but have been unable to report but little concerning it.

MINERS CONTINUE TO WIN RECRUITS

INDIANAPOLIS — (Associated Press.) — Continued gains in the non-union coal fields were claimed today by the United Mine Workers of America for the nation-wide suspension of work in the coal industry with the union's announcement that 665,000 miners are now participating in the walkout.

Plans for pushing the movement into the non-union fields, particularly Pennsylvania, were being considered by union officials, with indications that more organizers may be sent into the coal fields.

With the strike now nearing the end of the second week, the new figures on the number of idle men showed an increase of 65,000 since the opening of the suspension when the union claimed 600,000 participants. Of this number 25,000 recruits have been added this week, union officials asserting that most have been obtained in central Pennsylvania.

Except for the developments in the non-union fields, no change has yet come in the general situation. In union circles here the opinion apportioned was that the strike is settling down to a test of endurance and that any changes will occur slowly.

U.S. TRADE INJURED BY OWN PEOPLE

Firms Discredited Aboard By Government Attacks

CONCERNS BRANDED CROOKS

Forbes Comments on Impressions Created in Other Lands

BY B. C. FORBES
NEW YORK — (Special) — Let's quarrel among ourselves if we must. But should we not try to present a united front when we come to dealing with the peoples and the markets of other lands?

The character, the reputation, the standing of great American enterprises have too frequently been injured and crippled in their efforts to capture foreign markets by the attacks made upon them and the unfriendly attitude adopted towards them by our own government and by other public bodies.

For example, when a foreign legislative body has been discussing proposed legislation which would affect American corporations, competitors of these corporations have had foreign lawmakers stand up and read extracts from governmental denunciations of the American corporations concerned. It has been easy to convince foreign legislative bodies that they had to guard the country against competition, not from honest American companies, but against American companies that were crooks thru and thru as revealed by official governmental documents prepared and issued by the American authorities themselves. Often, however, these attacks have hurt American opportunities for sending goods to other countries and has, as a consequence, emptied American pay envelopes.

American packers have suffered particularly severely in foreign markets from this sort of thing. Our own authorities have painted the packers as the blackest of black sheep. And these charges have been used as weapons by foreign competitors.

Yet, when the British board of trade conducted an investigation into alleged condemnable practices of American packers in Brazil, it could not find that these packers, much maligned by their own government, had been guilty of any dishonorable conduct in South America. The president of the Board of Trade was fair enough to stand up this week and tell the House of Commons that, contrary to allegations which had been made "no complaint had been made of unfair trading by American companies beyond severe cutting of prices for purposes of developing trade or clearing surplus stocks."

Standard Oil interests have suffered similarly. In their battles for foreign trade and for foreign concessions to develop oil properties they have encountered opposition which was buttressed by the presentation of damaging statements made against them by the American authorities. "See what a pack of scoundrels these Standard Oil people are; it is our duty to keep them out of our country," is a sample of the arguments sometimes used by rivals who desired to capture these markets and these concessions for themselves exclusively.

Unfortunately, we have had too many administrations that could not grasp the importance of doing everything legitimate and possible to back up American companies in their efforts to develop American trade in foreign fields. The prevailing spirit at Washington too often has been that enunciated by ex-Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan; if there were Americans foolish enough to invest their money in Mexican enterprises, let them suffer the consequences. They should have stood at home.

Even to this day many people have the idea that America is such a vast and rich and fertile and populous country that there is no need, whatsoever for seeking to do business with anybody but ourselves. Statistics are quoted to show how large a percentage of our total business is done inside our own borders, and it is then argued that the comparative few billions of trade we do with other countries is of no consequence.

This, of course, is a fatal short-sightedness. It is, in fact, shortsightedness. No industrial nation ever yet reached supremacy by confining its trading to its own shores. Foreign trade and ships have gone hand in hand with the national dominance. And, great though America admittedly is, she cannot hope to gain and maintain international commercial supremacy if she acts on the assumption that it is a matter of no moment whether we let our foreign commerce decay or not.

Our productive capacity today is greater than can be employed to the full in supplying our domestic wants alone. And if we neglect to find foreign outlets for our surplus production, prices will become demoralized, unemployment will become widespread, discontent will become rampant, and we will lose out in the race for supremacy among the nations of the world.

We, as a nation, might profitably take a leaf out of Britain's book and Germany's book in this matter of getting behind rather than in front of our powerful business enterprises whenever they sail forth to conquer foreign markets. British and German industrial, financial, shipping, insurance and other companies could never have gained the places they did gain in international markets had their governments not accorded them the most sympathetic support. Let our government do the same. And let you and me try to obtain a clearer understanding of the value of encouraging American concerns that fare forth into foreign fields and seek to sell American goods made by American workers. Unfriendly and uneducated in this respect has been lamentably neglected. Copyright, 1922.

RETIREMENT FUND FOR "Y" SECRETARIES WINS FAVOR OF LIMA BODY

A retirement fund for Y. M. C. A. secretaries, sponsored by the national association, was endorsed at the directors of the Lima "Y" at their regular monthly meeting Wednesday night.

It is planned to raise a fund of $4,000,000 which will be invested and the interest used to take care of all secretaries who are more than 60 years of age and have been in the "Y" service for 20 years or more.

This will stabilize the profession of directing Y. M. C. A. activities and induce strong men to enter the field it is believed. The Lima directors voted $500 to the four year program.

A very encouraging report as to conditions among Y. M. C. A.'s thru out the state and in the local "Y" was presented to the board. More than 100 new members were added to the local "Y" during the past month.

A sufficient amount of money was obtained at the H. Y. carnival at the Y Wednesday evening to send delegates to the annual conference of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. at C. Y. Stephens, Oscar Young and L. A. Larsen were named as a committee to nominate candidates for six directors of the body, to be reported at the annual meeting, April 26.

RUSSIA BALKS AT ALLIED PLANS

Immediate Snag is Presented to Genoa Conference

DRASTIC PROPOSALS MADE

Foreign Tribunals For Soviet Country Are Included

(By HENRY WOOD)
GENOA — (United Press) — The allied proposals seek to reduce Russia to the level of Turkey, George Tchitcherine declared today.

The Russian leader announced objection to the allied experts' plan which was submitted to the subdivisions of the economic conference here as a basis for Europe rehabilitation and asked 24 hours in which to prepare a formal negative reply.

The Genoa conference got down to the bedrock of its work today with four commissions — political, economic, financial and transportation — considering the experts' proposals which were laid before them in great detail at yesterday's sessions.

ALLIED PROPOSALS
The Russian refusal, anticipated by allied leaders, presented an immediate snag to peaceful progress of the conference. The allied proposals regarding Russia were more drastic than had been anticipated. They included Russian recognition of czarist and provisional government debts and guarantees for non-aggression and for safety of foreigners in Russia. This was expected. But a French proposal for establishing foreign tribunals within the borders of Russia and a measure of supervision over Russian internal affairs, also was included in the experts' plan.

It was to this last suggestion that Tchitcherine indicated Russia never would agree. He declared his delegation was willing to give financial and other guarantees in the name of his government, but that it was impossible to grant special tribunals, infringing upon Russian sovereignty.

COUNTER-PROPOSALS
The Russian spokesman today prepared a list of counter-proposals, based on the Russian program already outlined in United Press dispatches, namely:

1.—That Russia be granted a loan of $500,000,000.
2.—Russia will guarantee the safety of foreigners within her borders in exchange for similar guarantees by other countries.
3.—Russia will agree to recognize czarist debts and those of the Kerensky regime, but will ask for a moratorium for payment of damage caused by attacks of Wrangel, Denikin, Kolchak and other commanders backed by the allies in futile attacks against the soviet.

4.—Russia will insist upon absolute sovereignty and will under no circumstances permit allied supervision of her internal affairs.

Tchitcherine today said the allied plan apparently contemplated a regime of capitulations on the part of Russia.

Lloyd George, it was believed, would introduce a plan for guarantees of non-aggression among European states. This while not infringing upon France's stand regarding limitation of land armaments would give Europe a breathing spell in which nations could turn their attention to matters other than war.

GENOA — (Associated Press) — Nikolai Lenin, Soviet premier, will come to Genoa to replace George Tchitcherine as head of the Russian delegation when the negotiations at the economic conference reach the proper stage, says the newspaper Secolo.

The newspaper adds that an apartment is being prepared for Premier Poincaré at the villa Ragio, and that he is expected here shortly. The meeting of the commission on Russia has been postponed to tomorrow. M. Tchitcherine awaiting instructions from Lenin at Moscow, with whom he is in direct communication.

COUNTY FARM AGENTS HOLD PARLEY IN LIMA

A 100 per cent attendance marked the opening of the county farm agents' conference at the chamber of commerce auditorium, Thursday. Agents from Allen, Hardin, Paulding, Auglaize and Van Wert cos. attended.

E. P. Reed, R. P. Wallace and John W. Wuchet, agricultural experts from Ohio State university, were present to instruct the agents in animal husbandry, soil fertility and farm economic subjects. A. E. Anderson, assistant state leader of county agents, was in charge of the meeting.

A conference of the farm bureau directors for the fifth district will be held, Friday at Ottawa. Members from the above five counties are expected to be present.

$30,000,000 TO GO IN BUILDINGS

Cleveland Concern Plans Unparalleled Housing Development

APARTMENT COMMUNITY

Will Have Own Heating and Ice Plant

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press) — A housing development, said to be without parallel in building history and which will cost $30,000,000 to complete, is to be started on Shaker Heights within the next sixty days, according to announcement made by Josiah Kirby, who heads the developing organization.

The development is to be a unique model apartment community, which will have its own central heating and ice plant, its own market, theatre, public garage and business center, and when completed will afford facilities for the housing of more than 1,000 families.

PURCHASE OF LAND
The location is on both sides of Shaker boulevard, from Morland circle east to Coventry rd and both sides of South Morland boulevard from the circle to South Woodland rd.

Plans for the big project became known following the purchase by Kirby and his associates of the land with a frontage of 8,400 linear feet with a valuation of $2,500,000. Ten million dollars is to be expended on apartments on both sides of Shaker Boulevard east of Morland circle, another $10,000,000 on apartments and terraces on both sides of South Morland boulevard from the circle to S. Woodland rd and the remaining $10,000,000 in the business development on Shaker boulevard west of the circle and the market house, theatre and heating plants in Williams-av.

400 ATTEND FARM BUREAU ASSEMBLY IN LAFAYETTE

More than 400 were present at the regular monthly meeting of the Jackson-Tip Farm Bureau at Lafayette Wednesday night. One of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in the county was seen, H. J. Ridge, farm agent, said Thursday.

A complete program was given and a number of talks on farm subjects were heard. Robert Heffner, leader of the Boys' Pig club, told of the plans for the coming year and Mrs. Arthur Phillips spoke on the farm poultry yard.

During the day, County Agent Ridge visited seven schools in Jackson-Tip and explained the workings of the pig clubs and clothing clubs. Many girls evinced an interest in the clothing clubs, he said. Mrs. Howard Holzer has taken the leadership of the girls and a four year course in the study of clothing and the designing of dresses will be given, Ridge stated.

LIVESTOCK SETS PACE FOR READJUSTMENT

CHICAGO — The livestock industry has set the pace for agricultural readjustment and indications are that it will "continue to exert a dominating influence in the return of business to normal conditions," according to a quarterly report issued today by S. B. Stafford, president of the Chicago Livestock Exchange.

"Hog prices are on a sound basis," says the report. "Continued light supplies may be expected because of the enormous losses the spring pig crop has sustained."

"Cattle should sell at higher levels. We are on the verge of a scarcity of beef producing animals that would have become acute before now had the depression caused an increase in marketing at the same time it curtailed consumption demand."

DEATH OF MISS FREYMUTH
WAPAKONETA. — Miss Louise Freymuth, 67, died suddenly at her home in Pusheta-tp, near here, from heart trouble.

MRS. PACKER DIES
ST. MARYS. — Mrs. Catherine Packer, 79, widow of James Packer, died here at the home of her son, Frank Packer. She was a native of Hardin-co, and a member of the Dunkard church.

POWDER FOR NOSES WINS OUT IN COURT DECISION

CORNING, Ark. — Arkansas girls cannot be expelled from school for powdering their noses, District Judge Bandy ruled here. The decision declaring talcum powder is cheap — so cheap both boys and girls can wear it — followed the expulsion from school of Miss Pearl Pugsley, 18, Knobel, Ark., who revolted against an order by Professor N. E. Hicks against cosmetics.

The girl's father carried the case to court. He soon afterward died, but Miss Pugsley carried on the resultant row dividing families and friends in Knobel.

Judge Bandy scored the school board and Hicks for letting go "frivolous" a case got to court and declared face powder not injurious to health or morals.

GAS PRICE WAR PROSPECT FADES IN GENERAL BOOST

Possibilities of a gasoline price war between the Standard Oil Co. and the Pure Oil Co., vanished Thursday when orders were received by the latter company to raise all prices to the level of those posted by the Standard and Lilly White companies.

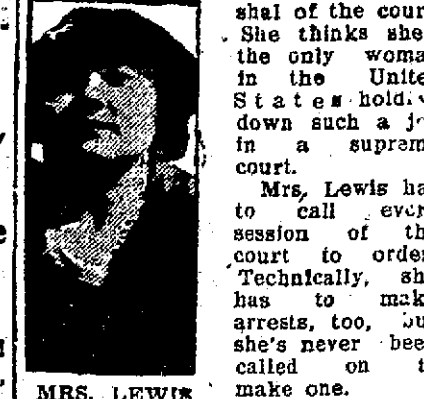

Prices on gasoline thru out the city and county are now 24 cents at the filling station and 23 cents at the tank wagon. This is a one cent advance. Naptha will sell at 21 1-2 cents a gallon.

Increased use of gasoline due to the mild winter and the early spring are said to have cut down the quantity of refined gasoline in stock and brought about the higher prices.

CHIEF CLERK OF SUPREME COURT

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. — Mrs. William Chesley Lewis, chief clerk of the supreme court of Oklahoma, also is marshal of the court.

She's just like big brother. When a girl gets her hair bobbed she must have them "parted," Lima tonsorial artists assert.

When a barber, performing the tonsorial abbreviation, asks "right, left or middle, Miss?" she generally answers "left," which goes to prove that the majority of them are having the stubby locks trained over to the southpaw side, in preference to the right or middle.

But a few, especially where the whips are few and far between, request separation in the center. Mike, the demon shearer of female tendrils, who has made it a life study by correspondence, says that it is because they look balanced. Owners of bushy treasures of "crown"

MRS. LEWIS
If the court convenes and a quorum isn't present, the marshal has to hurry out and discover the hiding places of enough of the absent justices to make a session possible.

Mrs. Lewis is a law graduate and has been admitted to the bar.

47 MILLIONS MADE BY RAILROADS

Sum Shown as Profit for February in Report

(By HERBERT W. WALKER)
WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Railroads of the country are getting back to days of prosperity, figures as to their earnings during February presented to the interstate commerce commission, today, show.

During that month, the railroads earned 4.57 per cent on their tentative valuations—the highest rate of return in more than 18 months.

The improvement is shown in striking fashion by the report that this February the roads made a profit of $47,762,600 as compared with a deficit of $5,176,867 in February, 1921.

MAY AFFECT RATES
The figures are significant because they indicate railroad earnings are increasing so the interstate commerce commission probably will be justified in making rate reductions in the near future if the upward trend of earnings continues.

Earnings during February were $14,884,000 under the amount necessary to have enabled the carriers to make a six per cent return, an Esch-Cummings law provision which recently expired, stating rates were to be fixed so that the roads would as near as possible earn a six per cent return.

The interstate commerce commission is now free to base railroad rates on any rate of return that it sees fit, but it is understood that it does not desire to bring the general level much below six per cent.

LARGEST IN EAST
During February, the roads in the eastern district earned considerable in excess of the six per cent return, the average being 7.17 per cent. The net operating income in this district was $29,535,800 as compared with a deficit of $7,627,592 in February, 1921.

The roads in the other districts, however, were not so prosperous. The lines in the south earned 3.98 per cent. In the western district, where the agricultural depression has been acute, the rate of return was only 2.46 per cent.

The report reveals that the roads are beginning to effect economies which are aiding them in recovering from the disastrous conditions during the war. While operating revenues during February were virtually the same as for February, 1921, operating expenses were reduced 15.6 per cent.

THIRTEENTH ARREST IN OHIO ELECTRIC THEFTS

Fred McKean, young farmer, residing near Leipsic, arrested by Ohio Electric detectives Thursday is the thirteenth man to be taken into custody in connection with the wholesale robbery of merchandise cars.

He is charged with purchase of stolen property.

Operations of Lee "Red" Harris, 26, Leipsic, his father, Oliver Harris and others under arrest will be probed by the Putnam-co grand jury Friday and Saturday.

The Harris family is alleged to have systematically looted interurban freight cars for a period of several months prior to being caught.

TWO MEN SENTENCED TO FEDERAL PRISON

COLUMBUS — Pleading guilty to burglarizing postoffices in Lower Salem and Elba in Washington cos., several months ago, James Walsh, alias James Murray, was sentenced to five years in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., by Federal Judge Satter yesterday. James O'Donnell, who pleaded guilty to a similar charge was sentenced to three years in the same prison. Charges against George Haughean and Charles Bursett were dismissed.

$300 ROBBERY IN DELPHOS
DELPHOS — There is no clue to the identity of the thieves who entered the home of O. E. Benton, Clover Leaf Railroad engineer and stole money and jewelry of the value of $300. The loot included a pair of diamond earrings, a wrist watch, a lady's watch, clothing, a revolver and $56 in money. A diamond lavalliere was lost on the floor by the thieves and a diamond ring on a dresser was overlooked. Silverware was dumped from the chest but none of the pieces was taken.

Then Sally must have the clippers employed on the nape of the neck to obliterate scenery which might otherwise present the appearance of a wheatfield after a tornado. But in no instance—heaven forbid—has Sally submitted to the razor, says Mike.

Disciples of the scythe are great friends of the bobbed hair movement. "Shure, now, young feller," said a shearer of Irish proclivities, "why shouldn't they have 'em trimmed? Don't it save 'em a lot of trouble putting 'em up, especially if they have to get up early and hustle to work?"

MISTAKE IN IDENTITY; NEIDEMIRE IS RELEASED

Darrell A. Neidemire, 27, of 217 Harrison-av., was released from city jail Wednesday after being held since Tuesday for Dayton police on a federal warrant. It was a case of mistaken identity, Dayton officers declared.

Neidemire was arrested on a description furnished by a man who was arrested in Dayton and accused of stealing an auto and taking it outside the state. The man escaped, police say.

Arrival of a federal officer disclosed that the local youth was not the party wanted.

Neidemire will make a trip to Dayton to find out the why and wherefore of his imprisonment here.

Description of Design No. One 59^c

Design No. 1, as illustrated above, is made of fine clear crystal glass. Designed in an artistic yet simplified way. Substantial and very useful. Will hold a half pound of Perfection Wafers. Top fits snugly, keeping contents fresh and sweet.

Flakey - Full Flavored - Golden Edged Wafers of Purity and Nutriment

Every home should have a CRACKER JAR—and keep it on the table at every meal. The attractive, useful cracker jars we are offering are especially convenient for service at the table, on the buffet or the serving table. Handy when serving a hasty lunch—for the kiddies' use between meals.

The glass jar keeps the wholesomeness and crispness in and the crackers cannot become moist. The jars hold just enough crackers so there will be no waste—no stale crackers—and no disappointment—test their daintiness.

Don't wait. Get your beautiful GLASS JAR filled with Perfection Wafers at your grocers at once. We purchased a big supply but the demand will be great and you should not want to miss this remarkable offer.

Perfection Wafers

—tasty - crisp - wholesome -
a delightful cracker

The Wafer With the Full Wheat Flavor

People wonder why Perfection Wafers are so good so different. The answer is—the exacting care with which they are baked and the high standard of purity in the materials used.

Every ingredient must be approved by our own chemist. There is never any doubt about Perfection Wafers. We buy the best and we make every test. And there is the skillful method of making, due to long experience and high ideals.

You would be amazed and delighted if you could see how Perfection Wafers are made. From the scientific blending and mixing of the dough—to the great ovens, then to the packing rooms—there is an endless stream of these perfectly baked, exceptionally wholesome wafers.

Make no mistake—there is only one Perfection Wafer. It is known throughout many states, and it is THE wafer which you can always rely on.

Eat Perfection Wafers as your bread—at every meal. There are hundreds of uses — everyone a delight in itself.

89^c Description of Design No. Two

This beautiful cracker jar illustrated above in actual size is made from the genuine tank glass. It has the genuine cutting of the leaf and vine design that is so attractive in glassware. The graceful bowl shape gives it an air of artistic elegance. It is fine enough to be used with the most expensive glassware.

With These Containers

Your crackers can be kept dry and crisp. The last one as fresh as the first

It is mighty easy to buy Perfection Wafers—you can get them by the pound at all grocers. Buying Perfection Wafers this way is the sensible economical idea. When you pay for a pound of Perfection Wafers you get full value in crackers. And with the cracker jar to keep them in—it is the only way to buy.

Perfection Wafers being sold by the pound move faster and therefore the grocer always has a crisp, fresh supply on hand.

Perfection Wafers are baked fresh every day and delivered quickly to your grocer.

Buy Perfection Wafers often—eat them at every meal—give them to the children—keep them in the glass cracker jar.

UNIFIED POLICY IN ALASKA URGED

Too Many Governments There, Secretary Lane Says

OPPORTUNITIES POINTED OUT

Methods Proposed for Development of Resources

By W. T. GREELEY
Chief, U. S. Forest Service
WASHINGTON (Special)—Two things about Alaska should be clearly understood: that her resources form one of the greatest undeveloped assets of the United States; and that 98 per cent of those resources are publicly owned. On both counts the development of Alaska is a matter of public concern and, in no small measure, of public responsibility. The "problem" of Alaska is how to apply common sense and efficiency to public business.

The groundwork for the development of Alaska has been laid. Existing laws provide for the utilization of her timber, her fisheries, her agricultural lands, her metals, her coal and oil deposits, and her waterpower. Additional legislation on certain resources is needed, particularly to encourage the fur and reindeer industries, to perpetuate the supply of valuable fish products, and to protect the interior forests. Certain wrinkles of obsolete or inadequate laws need ironing out.

NEED UNIFIED POLICY
But we lack a unified policy for Alaska as a whole. "There is a government of the forests, a government of the fisheries, one of the deer and natives, another of the cables and telegraphs," said Secretary Lane. Something is needed to bring these things together, to coordinate the handling of different groups of resources.

At the same time, Alaska is part of the United States. Alaska is a future state in her own right. Alaska contains 6 per cent of our national timber supply. Her enormous food resources and her power and mineral resources are part of an important part of our national equipment. These several resources ought to be developed in accordance with national aims and policies.

Here then is the nub of the problem: to handle public business in Alaska with efficiency and teamwork, without cutting Alaska off from our national scheme of things.

TWO METHODS
Two simple business principles will do it. In the first place, let each federal bureau or department place its business in Alaska under a resident officer with authority to act on the ground and with large discretion in applying federal laws to Alaskan conditions.

Let only transactions of special importance, large questions of policy, and appeals from local decisions come to Washington. In other words, cut out long range administration and red tape.

In the second place, provide for constant and direct contact between the different federal agencies by establishing an Alaskan cabinet. Put in it the governor of the territory, the officer responsible for each major division of national business, and one or two representative citizens.

DIRECT SETTLEMENT
Make it the duty of the cabinet to correlate the different federal activities, to straighten out conflicts or overlaps, and to collaborate in developing the best means for all-round development of Alaska. Many every-day questions in handling public business could be settled directly by the cabinet.

We should not cut Alaska off from effective help by each federal agency in developing the resources in which that particular outfit represents the organized experience and technical skill of the country.

We should not risk a breakdown in Alaska of fundamental policies which the United States has adopted for the conservation of national resources.

Without doing either, we can run the public business of Alaska efficiently.

BOYS CHARGED WITH DROWNING PLAYMATE

DETROIT—Three boys, ranging in age from 14 to 17, are held in the juvenile detention home here pending investigation of charges that they threw Lewis Dargan, 10 years old, into Chass Creek on the east side, after stripping him of his clothing. Young Dargan's clothing was found on the bank of the creek yesterday, but his body has not been found.

The boys detained are Edward Book, 17, Edward Clark, 14, and Frank Tomola, 14. They were taken into custody after the father of accused playmate of young Dargan informed the authorities the child had been thrown into the creek at a point where the water was eight feet deep.

MEN AND MATTERS

J. R. Christia and Neal Adga's are in Washington for a brief visit, returning to Lima from a trip to Florida and Cuba.

Christia was stationed near Washington during the civil war, having enlisted as a drummer boy at the age of 12. He became acquainted with Tad Lincoln, son of President Abraham Lincoln and was a playmate about the White House with Tad.

Christia as a drummer boy sounded the alarm to call out the soldiers after President Lincoln was shot by John Wilkes Booth.

IS WOMAN THE ETERNAL TEMPTATION? IS MAN THE COMPENDIUM OF VIRTUE?

NEW YORK—(Special)—Shall "Civic Virtue" be given the ozone? The ladies are effervescing about him. Ladies' men are doing ditto.

"Civic Virtue" is a gent with a stone sword at "shoulder arms." The sword completes his costume.

At the moment he's one-stepping right over two young women. You might think at first they were 1922 flappers, but a closer inspection—Now, now, let's be broadminded!

One young woman has the top story of a family skeleton in her fairy hand; the other young lady has a net. You might think she was fishing for fish! But that shows you don't know anything about art. She's just fishing for a poor fish! There is a difference.

Frederick MacMonnies figured it out. "Woman always has been the eternal temptation. Live, for instance." So I'll make "Civic Virtue" a man—but no Adam. And I'll have him romp over the temptresses, darn 'em.

The thing is being sculpted in heroic size to occupy some tax-exempt terrain in City Hall Park. It might have been slid into place without more than a cuss word or two by the careful men, but—

Some of the ladies got the notion the thing gave their sex a raw deal. So they began to sing Mr. C. Virtue and Mr. MacMonnies the razz chorus. Now Mayor Hylan isn't sure whether C. Virtue is really fit for public exposure. So he's getting opinions.

EXAMPLE NO. 1—Keysa McMein, the artist, says, "Well, if women don't lure, who don't we? If we have to have lures, don't we? If there are no temptations, there would be no virtues. Any man who could walk over a real lady-lure with a net and everything ought to be done in marble—or concrete."

EXAMPLE NO. 2—Mrs. Charles Tiffany, chairman of the League of Women Voters for Manhattan Borough, says, "The allegory as presented by Mr. MacMonnies evidences a misconception. True, in the conception woman did stand for temptation. But today the great hope of the body politic lies in woman's civic virtue."

Mayor Hylan wants everybody's views. To reject a job by MacMonnies takes a stout heart.

FINED FOR SPEEDING, DR. MEIER OFFERS PLAN FOR TRAFFIC IN SQUARE

Arrested on a charge of exceeding the speed limit and fined $10 in criminal court Tuesday, Dr. H. W. Meier, 633 W. Spring-st., offered police suggestion he believes may help solve the traffic problem in Public Square.

His suggestion is to park autos in four rows on Main-st. one line next to the car tracks on each side of the square and the others a distance of 15 feet or more from the curbs, giving two lanes on each side.

He suggests cars should be parked obliquely in both rows to facilitate driving them away. Dr. Meier's plan contemplates a system in which machines leave parking space and enter the traffic lanes without a lot of see-sawing backward and forward.

MUMAUGH CAR RECOVERED; 5-TIME VICTIM OF THEFT

Police Thursday at 8:30 a. m. found the Nash automobile, belonging to E. W. Mumaugh, contractor, 1063 W. Market-st., stolen Wednesday night, at the intersection of St. Johns-av and Fourth-st. Joyriders were responsible, police say. It was undamaged.

It was the fifth time Mumaugh's auto was stolen, police say, and the second time for the Nash. He bought it about a month ago on a Friday and it was taken by the joyriders the following Saturday night. The car was found abandoned in the commons at the end of E. Third-st.

ADDED AID GIVEN FOR "GLOOM CHASING WEEK"

Extraordinary interest is being shown by Lima organizations in "Gloom Chasing Week," to be observed next week. Practically every organization in the city is aiding in pushing the Social Service bureau fund over the top.

Open house will be observed at the Y club during the week. Something will be doing every day and practically every evening. All money taken in will be turned over to the fund.

A repeat performance of the minstrel show will be given Monday night and again on Tuesday night. Dancing will follow the performance. A dance will be given Wednesday night by the Nurses' association and park plan dancing will be on the program, Thursday and Saturday nights.

Contributions of $10 each were received from the Mentor Club and the Round Table club Calvary Reformed church will also make a cash contribution, it is stated.

Gaul's "Holy City" will be presented Sunday night, April 23, by the choir of the First Christian church with the aid of the city soloists. The silver offering will be turned over to the fund.

A card party and dance at the F. O. E. No. 370 club rooms will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p. m.

INJUNCTION TIES BODY'S HANDS

Works Two Ways, Senator George Norris Declares

Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska, who contributes to the Lima News this article bearing an injunction in connection with the fuel situation, has served in the United States Senate since 1913. He is a member of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

By GEORGE W. NORRIS
United States Senator from Nebraska

WASHINGTON—(Special)—The existing so-called Each-Cummings law provides for a labor board and gives it certain powers.

Recently the Pennsylvania Railroad Company received the information that this board was to decide a case which had been tried before the board and in which the Pennsylvania road was a party, against the contention of that road.

It promptly secured an injunction restraining the board from rendering any decision contrary to the contention of the complainant.

The Federal Trade Commission started in to investigate the steel trust. It was immediately met with an injunction restraining it from proceeding, also its duty in the matter under the statute passed by Congress, seemed quite plain.

The Federal Trade Commission in another case undertook to investigate the anthracite coal situation. It was enjoined on the ground, as I understand it, that the coal business was intrastate and hence the Federal Trade Commission had no jurisdiction.

At the same time a state commission in one of our states undertook to investigate the coal operators in that state. The United States court promptly issued an injunction restraining this commission from proceeding on the ground that the coal business was interstate.

And so it seems that by means of the injunction, those who would relieve the people from an almost unbearable situation in the fuel conditions are caught going and coming.

Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Druggists Guarantee First Pint Bottle of Allenru to Show the Way to Complete Recovery

Mr. James H. Allen, of Congress-ave., Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, are dissolved in the joints and muscles are expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called ALLENRU, to others, who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery thru the newspapers and instructed druggists to guarantee a full pint bottle as above stated. All druggists can supply you.—Adv.

"WOMANS JOB IS MAKING HOME"

One Who Has Tried Both Makes This Assertion

GIVES UP CAREER AT BAR

Old-Fashioned Mother Best, She Declares

(BY ROY GIBBONS)
CHICAGO—(Special)—"The paths of glory lead but to the grave."

An attorney had used the quotation as the finishing touches to his argument.

To him the phrase was grandiloquent, uttered for effect.

But there was one in the courtroom who heard, and was roused into a peculiar consciousness by the words.

That person was Mrs. Leonora Z. Nieder, also a lawyer.

Days after, the line kept repeating itself.

DECIDES ON HOME
And then she asked herself: "Home or career?"

And the answer was simply: "Home."

That's how Chicago has come to lose its foremost woman politician, club leader and barrister.

"I'm going to chuck it all," says Mrs. Nieder. "For the glamour of public life, women give up children, husband and home. Success? Fool's gold! I'm thru. The end is the grave. Empty nothingness!"

And this decision she made after 30 years of intimate dealing with the public.

It came right on the eve when the women's Democratic organizations had announced her name as the candidate for judge at the coming elections.

Success is hers! She was the woman who had been public welfare commissioner, and the first of her sex to sit in an Illinois jury box.

Her practice at law was bringing in more than a handsome living. But, "No," she said.

"I've back to the home for mine. Not that I have neglected the old I have, nor the duties to my children—one, my own; the eight others, my sister's little orphans. I've tried to be a good mother, but I feel now that I might be a better one."

HOMER WOMAN'S SPHERE
"After all, the old-fashioned mother was the best of her type. She might not have known much about antisepsis, adenoids or tonsils, but she surely knew how to bake an apple pie."

"Home! What a wonderful word. That's woman's sphere. I waited 30 years to convince myself just what it meant way down in the quietness of the thing."

Another Discussion of Topics of Interest for Children and Busy Adults. Today's Subjects:

- 1—The Genoa Conference
- 2—The New Tariff
- 3—Protection of Forests

Representatives of every important nation except the United States are meeting today at Genoa, Italy. They are trying to settle the world's money troubles.

THE GENOA CONFERENCE
This meeting is called the world economic conference. It was planned by David Lloyd George, British prime minister.

Thirty-four different nations have sent delegates to the conference. Three continents are represented. Every European country, except Turkey, is taking part in the meeting.

Asia is represented by Japan and Russia. Russia, of course, owns Siberia, a great part of the Asiatic continent.

America is represented only by Canada. The United States declined an invitation to go to the Genoa conference, believing that there would not be of interest to the United States.

The conference opened Monday, April 10. Prime Minister Facta of Italy is the chairman.

The problems before this gathering are:
First, the matter of foreign exchange. Since the war the value of the money of European countries has changed so much from day to day that trade has become almost impossible.

That is because European countries have spent more money than they possessed and made up the difference by printing worthless paper money. This lowers the value of the nation's real money.

Another trouble has been national debts. European countries went so heavily into debt during the war that they are having trouble now even paying the interest.

Still another big commercial problem is the fact that Russia, which formerly bought heavily from other countries, now is buying nothing. Russia is cut off from the rest of the world because other nations do not like the Russian bolshevik government.

A fourth problem is the disturbance caused by the German reparations. The reparations are the bill Germany must pay for destroying the land, factories and ships of other countries during the war.

The Genoa conference hopes to settle these four problems.

Genoa is a very old Italian city.

We, as Americans, are interested in Genoa because Christopher Columbus was born there or near there.

THE NEW TARIFF
A new tariff bill is now before the United States Senate. Tariff means the levying of duty or taxes on goods that come here from foreign countries.

This new tariff bill places a high duty on farm products. The object of this is to protect American farmers against competition by farmers in other countries.

You see, if a farmer in Europe can eat less and live cheaper than an American farmer, he can produce a bushel of wheat at a cheaper cost and therefore sell it cheaper.

The tariff makers think it would be unfair to the American farmer to allow the European farmer to send his wheat to America and undersell the American farmer.

That would mean that the American farmer either would have to sell his wheat at the same price as the European farmer, thus losing money, or would have no market at all for his wheat or other products.

The duty on tax is supposed to be high enough to force the European farmer to sell his product at the same price as the American farmer or at a higher price.

FOREST PROTECTION WEEK
President Harding has asked the governors of all states to set aside the week of April 16-22 as Forest Protection Week.

During that week all of us are expected to do everything we can to save American woods and forests which are disappearing rapidly.

We all know that not long ago most of the country was covered with dense woods. But because we had so much wooded land, we took no care of it.

Lumbermen cut down vast stretches of timber without thinking of planting more trees to replace them. Hunters and campers have been careless with fire in woods, and as a result, $20,000,000 worth of timber is destroyed by forest fires every year.

You can help to stop this waste. By taking part in school exercises devoted to forest saving.

By being careful with fire when you are on hikes and urging your friends to do the same.

TARIFF MEASURE 'Torture Days' ASSAILED

Most Un-American Ever Framed, Says Senator Simmons

"WILL BRING ADVERSITY"

Declares Bill Means Increased Unemployment

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press)—The administration tariff bill pending in the senate was assailed today by Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, ranking Democrat on the senate finance committee, as the most "un-American bill ever framed."

"Even a cursory examination indicates that it is the highest tariff bill ever written," declared Senator Simmons, who will lead the minority forces in their fight on the measure in the senate. "A tariff more unsuited to present conditions if we are to participate in world trade, could not well have been framed."

WILL BE CONDEMNED

"If it is adopted," continued Senator Simmons in a formal statement, "we will hardly hear much more about Republican tariff bringing prosperity. It will be at least one Republican tariff that will be condemned not as bringing prosperity, but adversity. In many instances it is excessively higher than the Payne-Aldrich bill with added provisions authorizing the president under certain conditions to increase these rates within a limit of 50 per cent."

"So far as the so-called protection accorded agriculture is concerned, only a small fraction of the duties imposed on agricultural products will be operative. They would have no effect, good or bad. The duties on a few agricultural products would result in an advance in prices."

"The high and excessive duties imposed on manufactured products would immediately result in a great increase in the price of things that the farmers buy but do not produce. In other words the result of this so-called protection to agriculture will be, so far as the farmers are concerned, the swapping of dollars for dimes."

MEANS MORE JOBLESS

"The main purpose of these high duties is to maintain the excessively high prices now obtained for products of industries other than the farm. The operation of the bill necessarily will penalize our export business which will mean in the end curtailment of production and increased unemployment on the farms, in the mines and in the factories."

Senator Simmons and other minority members of the committee with the aid of more than a dozen experts are analyzing the bill so as to be able to present their minority report within the nine days permitted by the majority. Pointing out that the bill was drafted by the Republicans behind closed doors and carried 2,000 amendments to the original Fordney measure, Senator Simmons said the minority "could not in any nine days, working intensively adequately investigate and study a bill of this size which occupied three months in the writing."

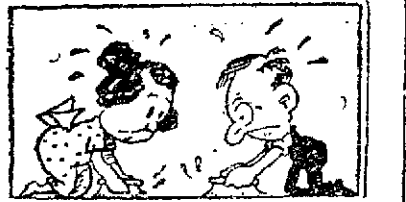

For Hubby in Housecleaning

These are trying days for man, poor man. Wife insisting on early housecleaning, cannot be headed off when the bug strikes. There is only one thing for hubby to do, to preserve peace and harmony and that is to hearken to the call for aid.

Wife insists that hubby stagger outdoors under the weight of a heavy rug, throw it over a line and industriously belabor the offending floor covering with an implement designed to remove the last vestige of dirt and dust. The task is not inviting, but it must be done.

The average husband views himself as a martyr at this particular season of the year. There are floors to be scrubbed and much as he dislikes the looks of a scrub brush, the contact is required to become intimate, or there's trouble ahead.

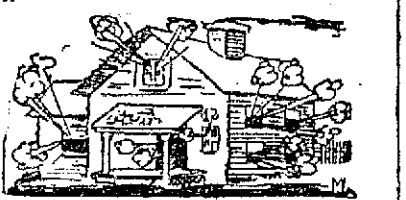

Man doesn't really know just how many rooms there are to clean until springtime comes. Then he begins to feel there are too many.

It isn't every man who is able to defy his better half, but some of them try it, to their sorrow. It's too chilly just now for him to rebel and sit on the front steps while wife has the interior of the house all up-seal.

There are instances where those who essay that sort of means of escape live to regret it. When wife's peremptory orders finally take firm hold, dust clouds emanate from doors and windows and hubby is forced to the opinion that his regular employment isn't so hard after all.

He's glad when the "torture days" are over and he is permitted to let his feet onto a foot rest and lounge lazily in an easy chair while he smokes and reads in the soft glow of an electric light during the evening.

Nine out of every ten men interviewed hold to the view that housecleaning is a period of terror. Those who are unable to devise a "business trip" when the wife decides upon the spring raid on dirt, are out of luck.

GRANGERS OPPOSE REAPPRAISEMENT

Hold Land Values Uncertain and Time Unpropitious

Grangers of Allen-co are opposed to the re-appraisal of real estate at the present time.

At a meeting of the granges of Allen-co, action was expressed upon this question. Resolutions adopted have been forwarded to C. R. Phillips, county auditor.

Reason expressed for the action is noted in the resolutions as due to present conditions and uncertain land values. The committee which prepared the resolutions comprises J. A. Wolford, C. R. Morgan and C. W. Burkhardt, J. H. Binkley is master of the county grange and Theodore W. Little is secretary.

As adopted, the resolutions read: "Whereas, land values are very uncertain at the present time, resolved, that Allen-co Pomona grange, in regular session assembled, is opposed to the re-appraisal of real estate at the present time or while present conditions continue."

Phillips declared that he knew of no action which would be taken toward re-appraisal.

RECEPTION IS PLANNED FOR PITTSBURG C. C. HERE

More than 150 members of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce are expected to visit Lima May 2, while on their "Golden Rule Tour." They are expected to arrive at 1 p. m. and remain until 3:30 p. m., inspecting various Lima industries.

A special committee of the chamber of commerce under the direction of Harold Cunningham will meet Friday at 4:30 p. m. to decide on the plan of entertainment for the visitors. Schedule of tour of the city and other arrangements will be made at this meeting.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES AT ST. RITA'S CHAPEL

Holy Week services are being held in the chapel of St. Rita's hospital, in conformity with those held in Lima, Catholic churches. Rev. Father McGurk, of St. Gerard's Catholic parish, in charge. Nurses at the hospital make up the choir.

Convalescent patients who desire are given opportunity to attend the services. "Mass of the Pre-Sanctified" will be celebrated at the chapel at 5:30 a. m. Friday. The services will continue until after Easter.

FEELS LIKE A NEW WOMAN

"I was a sufferer from kidney trouble for several years," writes Mrs. Arthur Demille, R. F. D. 1, Grasmere, N. H., "and suffered so much I felt completely lame all over. Since I have been taking Foley Kidney Pills I am not so lame. My back ached all the time and my eyes were all a blur. Now I can see fine and feel like a different woman. Since I have taken two bottles of Foley Kidney Pills I don't have that tired feeling. I can do my own work now." They bring quick results. Chas. J. Vorkamp, Main and McClellan-sts.—Adv.

CAPACITY OF PHONE PLANT TO BE INCREASED BY 6,000

When the installation of a new storage battery system at the Lima Telephone & Telegraph company is completed, the exchange will be able to carry 4,000 additional phones, George H. Metheany, general manager announced Thursday.

At present the plant is equipped to carry 12,000. The improvements which will enlarge service are nearly finished and will cost $8,500, it is stated.

TAKEN ON SUSPICION, PAIR PROVE UP ALIBIS

Two men were picked up on suspicion by police Thursday and held for investigation in connection with thefts that have occurred recently in Lima, but they proved alibis and were released.

They are: Henry Poerkner, 32, Cincinnati, and Lewis Goodman, 19, Chicago. The former was arrested on E. High and the latter at the rear of the Carter & Carroll dry goods store, N. Main-st.

TRIO PAY $1 EACH IN TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS

Charges were preferred against a trio of alleged traffic violators in criminal court Thursday. Each pleaded guilty and deposited $1. They are:

Ben Rakowsky, 37, of 616 Woodward, no tail light; W. R. Reel, 1120 Ritchie-av., parking without lights, and Roy Burke, 20, of 554 S. Elizabeth-st., parking in front of a water plug.

SUIT ON NOTE

Foreclosure proceedings against Gomer and Ruth Minnie Nichols is asked in a suit filed in common pleas court Wednesday by William P. Cahill. The property used as surety on notes of $400 which Nichols and his wife gave Cahill is part of lot 3220 in John Black's addition to Lima.

GIRLS OF THE MIDDLE WEST, WE APOLOGIZE FOR PRINTING THIS-NEWS PHOTOGRAPHS

More at Home
In Kitchen Is
Expert's DopeFlappers Discussed by F.
Scott Fitzgerald—Southerners Lauded by HimBY JOHN O'DONNELL
NEW YORK—"And as for the girl of the middle west—"

F. Scott Fitzgerald inhaled deeply and paused before he released a cloud and a shower of burning adjectives.

"She is unattractive, selfish, snobbish, egotistical, utterly graceless, talks with an ugly accent and in her heart knows that she would feel more at home in a kitchen than in a ballroom."

The author who has been hailed as the interpreter of American youth halted for a moment. Fitzgerald, frankly a good-looking, the hero of half a hundred romances, the realistic reporter of parlor fights and petting parties, plunged ahead into his analysis of the great American flapper.

MAKING EARS BURN!

"There is much of the uncouthness of the pioneer left in the middle western flapper," continued Fitzgerald. "She lacks the social grace of entertaining men. Her idea is to get everything and give nothing."

"There is in her a respect for the primitive feminine talents, she would really make a good cook but her family has made money in the last generation and there is no excuse for her to go into the kitchen. She doesn't know what she wants to do."

Fitzgerald should know. He was born in St. Paul. Furthermore, his judgment carries authority. For critics agree the author of "This Side of Paradise" and "The Beautiful and Damned" understands women—flappers, at least.

LAUDS SOUTHERNERS

"The southern girl is easily the most attractive type in America," continued Fitzgerald, with a wave of his cigar. "Next the girl from the east. At the bottom of the list the middle-western flapper."

"Hasn't she any good points?" I asked rather hopelessly.

"Yes. She has her health," he admitted.

"Now for the southern girl." Here Fitzgerald became enthusiastic. "First of all, remember that I married a southern girl. A characteristic is that she retains and develops her ability to entertain men. The middle-western girl lacks this utterly. With the sophisticated eastern girl it is a give-and-take proposition. To matter how poor a southern girl may be, and many of them are very poor, she keeps up her social activities. In New York, when a girl's family loses its money, she drops out of the running. This is not true of the south."

"Can you imagine a New York girl having a good time at a prom when she knows that she is not so well or so expensively dressed as the other girls?"

LUCKY SOUTHERN YOUTHS!

"Now in the south, the girls, because of their tradition of before-the-war culture—most of which is false—and their sense of old-world courtesy, know how to enjoy themselves despite financial embarrassment."

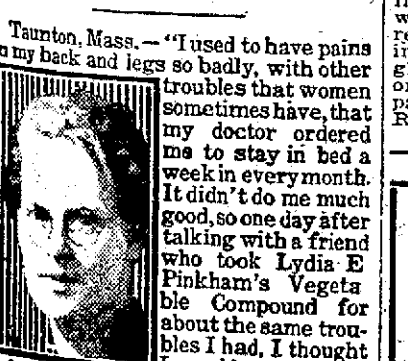

"A southern girl will slip into a simple muslin or organdie frock, go to a dance, entertain men on a rickety old porch, have a thoroughly good time and make no attempt to conceal her poverty. In fact she will even boast of it."

"Remember one southern girl who invited a crowd of young people by telling them of the efforts she made to prevent a maid from unpacking her trunk when she went to visit wealthy friends. She knew that the maid would be shocked to discover that she had placed cardboard in the bottoms of her worn-out shoes."

Taunton, Mass.—"I used to have pains in my back and legs so badly, with other troubles that women sometimes have, that my doctor ordered me to stay in bed a week in every month. It didn't do me much good, so one day after talking with a friend who took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for about the same troubles I had, I thought I would try it also. I find that I can work in the laundry all through the time and do my housework myself to be up and around and feeling so good while before I used to feel completely helpless. I have told some of the girls who work with me and have such troubles to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I tell them how it has helped me. You can use my testimony for the good of others."—Mrs. BLANCH SIVIA, 59 Grant St., Taunton, Mass.

If You Are

and want quick relief from daily torment and distress the best thing to do is to get a bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil from your druggist and apply a few drops nightly.

Relief comes the next day and in a few days the soreness is gone, and the swelling reduced. Moore's Emerald Oil is a very powerful antiseptic and many who use it assert that it strengthens the lower abdominal muscles so that the rupture is held more securely.

Please understand that it will not cure rupture, but will give blessed relief which is worth much more to those who suffer. Moore's Emerald Oil is the remedy that has proven so successful in reducing varicose veins and swollen glands. The price is $1.15 at druggists or you can get it by mail, charges prepaid, from International Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y. All druggists.—Adv.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
are a Harmless Substitute

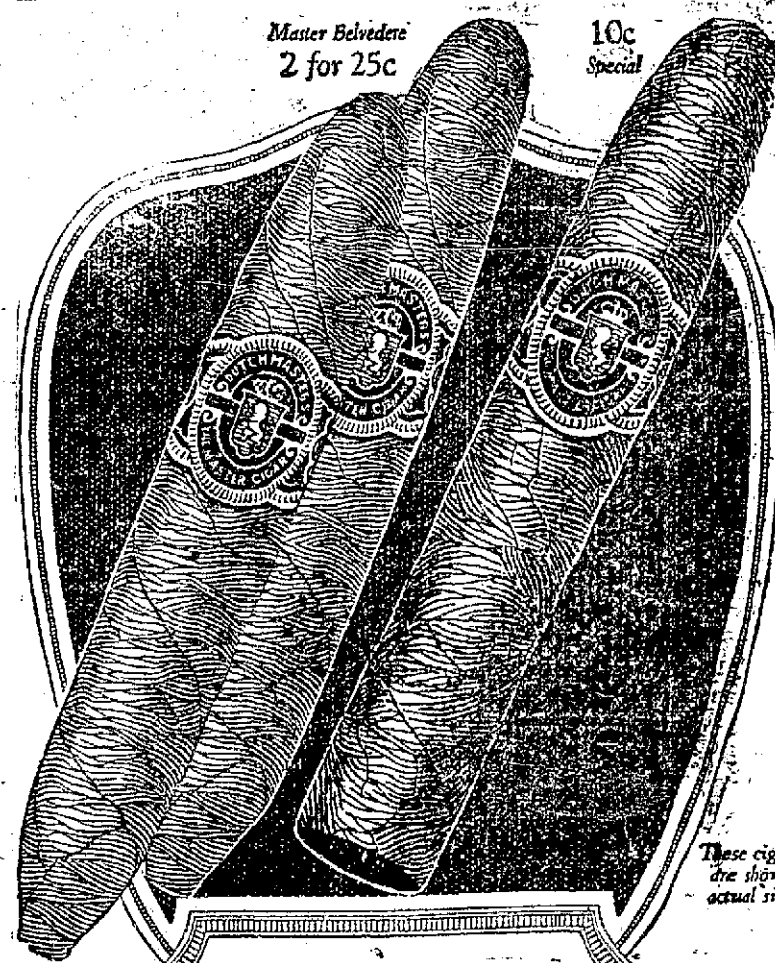

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c

GOOD FRIDAY

PEOPLE of all religious denominations observe in a particularly solemn manner the annual coming of "Good Friday," the Friday before Easter Sunday. It marks the climax in the life of the Man of Sorrow, He who gave His life that mankind might be saved from the consequences of sin. Tomorrow is that day.

It is the annual recurrence of the day when, on Calvary's hill, in the bitterness of His agony, nailed hand and foot to a cross of hewn timbers, His side pierced by a spear in the hands of a soldier, the Savior of mankind cried out, "It is Finished," and expired.

"Good Friday," in the religious calendar marks the anniversary of the day when the death of the meek and lowly Nazarene was but the fulfillment of His prophecy. He foretold His own death, at the hands of His enemies. "On the third day He arose from the dead," we are told in the Scriptures. It was the glorious Eastern morn, another epochal time, when Christ triumphed over death.

Even those who profess no religious belief, instinctively recognize the coming of "Good Friday" in a particular manner of some sort. Within the churches, the special services held are of a sorrowful character, in commemoration of the death of the Man of Galilee, who died that others might live. It is a time for the vigil of the dead. Mankind is impelled to personal abnegation, to fasting and prayer.

In many communities business is suspended during certain hours of the day on "Good Friday." Activities of mankind are halted temporarily, as a mark of respect. Next comes Easter, the time of gladness, when songs of praise and hosannas to the Risen Lord are heard. Church services resume their joyous character. The air of death is dispelled.

A VALUABLE ORGANIZATION

YEARS ago, when the organization of a farm bureau was first suggested, many people scoffed at the idea; said it was tomfoolery, a costly thing and wouldn't be worth shucks.

Others hailed it as a thing of value, and they have not changed their minds. Those who opposed the movement have been converted, for the most part. The opposition is now in the minority. The Allen-co farm bureau is numbered among the worth-while organizations of its kind in Ohio. Progress in agriculture, stock raising and kindred farm activities have constituted the work of the body.

It has taken a prominent place in developmental work and its members are enabled to save many times the cost to them in being afforded the opportunity to profit by the mistakes of others, as well as by others' successes. In addition to bringing to its members practical information of the most valuable character, thru demonstrations and by cooperation, much of the drudgery and uncertainty has been taken out of farming.

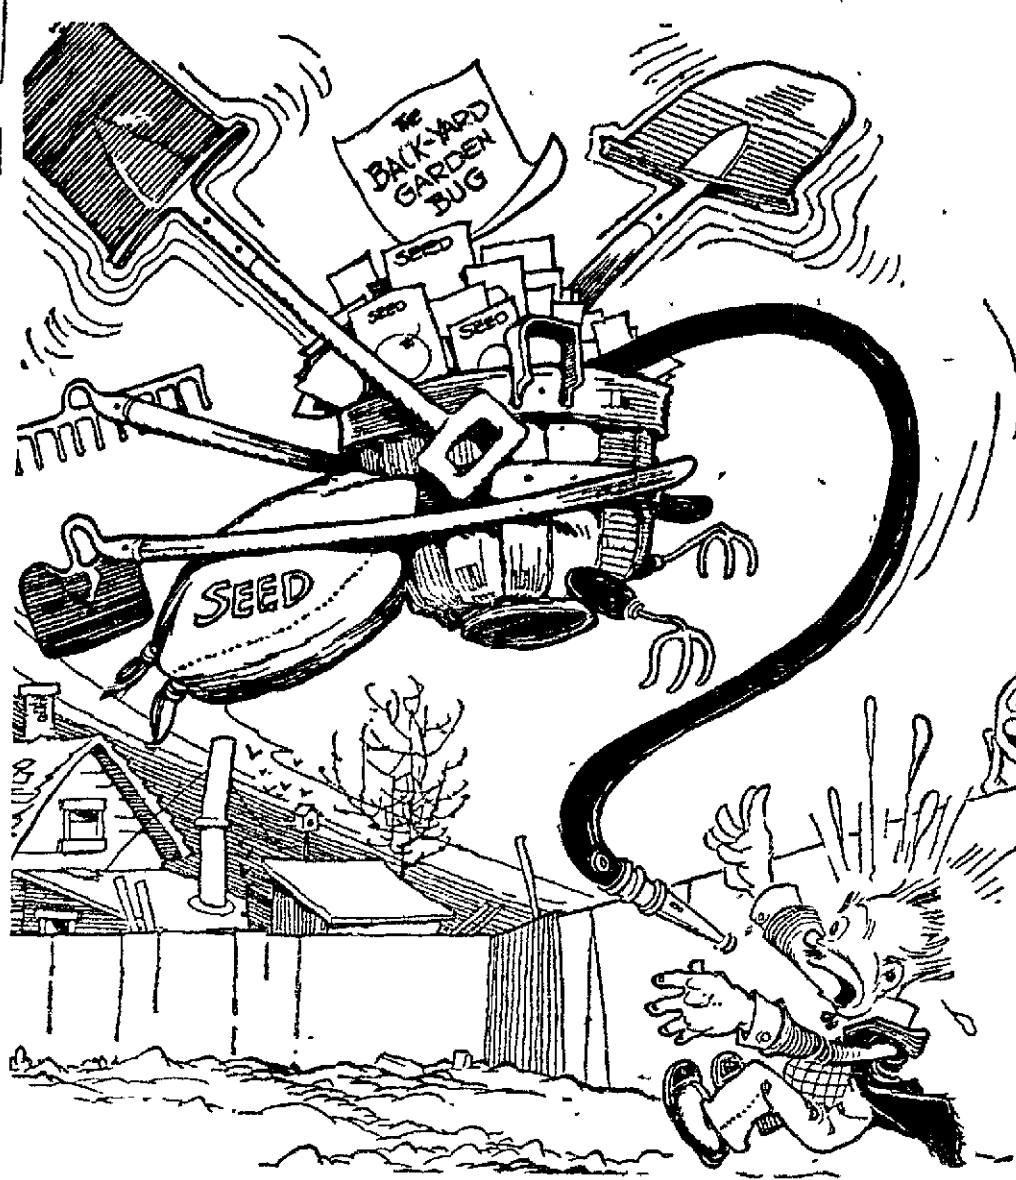

The young are taught the value of agriculture and stock raising, in contests staged and judging tests arranged. The women are afforded the opportunity of getting first hand information and practical demonstrations in their part of the farm work, as well as in being given instruction in first aid, in home nursing of the ill and in many other things that were formerly not available, except at great expense and time.

The farm bureau as a worth-while institution has become a fixture. Its enemies of yesterday are its supporters today. It is an example of the changing order of things.

TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS

POLICE court is crowded almost every morning—save Sunday—in these latter days, with citizens and visitors in the city, owners of autos, who have run afoul of the law in violation of the traffic laws. Most of these are the result of carelessness, on the part of citizens of the city, perhaps, but in the cases of strangers or residents of the country, it must be admitted that most of the cases are the direct result of lack of knowledge of the many-angled rules that must be observed to escape being haled into court.

While waiting for the opportunity to say, "Good morning, Judge," little knots of the victims of the watchfulness of the guardians of the law compare notes and jibe one another on their presence, called in to be separated from a dollar—or maybe more. Traffic requirements are such that numerous residents of agricultural districts and smaller towns about Lima, having occasion to visit this city, leave their cars on the outskirts, where there is less likelihood of a bluecoat calling them to punishment for parking in forbidden places or on the wrong side of the street, heading their car in the wrong direction, failing to have lights burning or not exhibiting license tags properly.

It isn't a pleasant thing to be ordered into court. So many changes are made in parking regulations by officials that it is difficult for car owners in the city to keep tab on all of them. In the cases of residents of the country districts or other localities, it is well nigh impossible. The situation is one that calls for the exercise of good judgment on the part of officials. It is realized that enforcement of measures designed to prevent indiscriminate parking of cars is necessary, but the more simple the rules are made and the less frequently they are changed, the more quickly will large numbers of cases in police court be reduced.

POEMS YOU WILL ENJOY

By BERTON BRADLEY

"JOSHERS"
A man is lucky who has for friends
A sort of irrelevant crowd
Who make gay sport of his aims and ends

Of which he is over-proud;
Tho on occasions he may object
To some of their ribald mirth,
Their irrepressible disrespect
Is keeping his feet on earth!

There's many a chap who ought
To tread
The pathways that lead to fame,
Who's handicapped by a swollen head

Because of some "small acclaim;
And much too often his chance is Wrecked

Because, when he seeks renown,
He lacks good comrades whose respect
Might whittle his ego down!

A certain amount of fulsome praise
And flattery has its charm,
But to hear naught else as you go
Is certain to lead to harm;

So, tho the laurels you may collect
Rest peacefully on your crown,
Don't shun your comrades whose disrespect
Is keeping your ego down!

Pimples and boils

—caused by errors of diet

A well-known skin specialist says that pimples are "signal flags of danger" often indicating errors in diet.

Indeed pimples are so frequently associated with faulty habits of eating and improper digestion that the first thing to do is to see that our food is right.

Fresh yeast is a wonderful corrective food for these skin disorders. Fleischmann's Yeast is rich in the elements which improve appetite and digestion and which keep the intestines clean of poisons.

Physicians and hospitals all over the country are recommending Fleischmann's fresh yeast for pimples and boils. It gets right at the basic cause of these complaints.

Eat 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's fresh yeast daily before or between meals to keep your skin healthy. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer.

HEALTH TALKS

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

RECIPE FOR BEAUTY

PROPER CARE OF FOOD

By DR. R. H. BISHOP
Economy and health are both important in the care of food.

It is not sufficient that the food be palatable and nutritious. It should also be properly cared for or it may be a menace instead of a benefit to the family health.

Certain foods spoil quickly unless kept under proper conditions. There are various conditions that affect the wholesomeness of foods.

For example, air, the dishes foods are placed in, the ice box, or other storage places.

Foods that spoil easily are milk, cream, uncooked fresh meats, some fruits as berries, peaches, plums and some table vegetables.

It is well not to leave fresh meats in the paper that is about them when delivered as the wrapping paper tends to absorb the juices.

Remove the paper and wipe the meat with a clean cloth that has been wrung out in cold water, and then place it in a dish.

Uncooked fish should not be placed in the ice box.

Odors rise, therefore, all strongly flavored foods should be put on the top of the refrigerator.

Butter should always be kept cool and well wrapped or covered, as it readily absorbs odors from other foods.

Cooked meats can be kept better if well covered before being put in the ice box. Never put hot or warm articles of food in the ice box as they tend to lower the temperature rapidly and cause an extravagant waste of ice.

WORKER'S EYES COUGED OUT

Crime Charged to Troops of General Semenov

LIST OF HORRORS UNFOLDED

Told to U. S. Probers of Cossack Chief's Acts

(BY CARL D. GROAT)
WASHINGTON—(United Press)

Gauging the eyes out of a Y. M. C. A. worker, and the cutting out of his tongue because he would not give Semenov Cossacks candy and cigars, was charged to troops of General Gregory Semenov, by Captain Edward L. Earl, of St. Paul, Minn., a former British royal engineer, testifying before the senate labor committee today.

Appearing before the committee which seeks dishonorable ejection of Semenov from this country, Earl brought forth a series of shocking charges against the Cossack chieftain, including:

Unwarranted attacks on British and American forces, utter insolence of Semenov himself to his allied colleagues, shooting down in cold blood of innocent peasants.

ATTACK ON TRAIN
Earl said one of the British Red Cross cars was stolen by the Semenov men, and the British sentry guarding it "mysteriously disappeared."

We never received co-operation from Semenov, such as common decency would require from an allied officer, he called himself one—and in fact he did everything he could to make it hard for us.

Asked as to conflicts with Russian troops, Earl told of an attack by Semenov forces on a train containing a small British and American contingent.

One British soldier was killed and one American lost his hand. A cavalryman, one of Semenov's men, thru shrapnel bombs at the group.

Earl claimed to have seen the Y. M. C. A. worker dead, horribly mangled by the savages of Semenov. Later the natives told the British that the savages, led by the Y. M. C. A. man because he would not give them supplies, had killed him and mutilated him.

Asked if he knew of any instances of cruelty against natives, Earl replied:

PEASANTS KILLED
"Oh, yes, but the time is limited. I can't tell all of them."

He told of outbreaks where innocent peasants were lined up and mowed down with machine guns simply out of rage and because of unfounded suspicion that they were "reds."

Semenov's attorney sprang a surprise by asking Earl if he had not appealed to Semenov since his arrival in New York for funds to come to New York, offering aid in return.

The attorney read one message of Earl to Semenov, hinting that he had information of value to the Russian.

SEMEV OFF MISSING
NEW YORK—(Associated Press)

General Gregorie Semenov, former "Ataman of the Cossacks" in eastern Siberia who was arrested in his arrival here last week, today faced the task of furnishing a new bail bond or going to jail before night. Officials of the surety company which furnished the bond the night after Semenov was arrested, gave notice of the firm's intention to cancel its responsibility in the case.

Considerable mystery developed as to the whereabouts of the "Ataman" today. Two or three deputy sheriffs were hunting for him, but they failed. It was declared that Semenov was in the city and would be produced by his attorneys today.

Mrs. Fronfield, stricken by paralysis, died after an illness of but five hours. She is survived by the husband, two daughters, Mrs. Olive Kirkpatrick, Van Wert, and Mrs. C. C. Crager, 1029 Price-st., and by a grand-daughter, Muriel Sargent, residing with Mrs. Crager.

JAR OF BIG QUARRY BLAST IS FELT IN CITY LIMITS

One of the heaviest shots ever made by the National Quarries Co., at its stone quarry four miles east of Lima, was exploded at 10 a. m. Thursday.

Twelve 32 foot holes were drilled and 5,000 pounds of powder was used in making the shot. It is estimated that more than 22,000 tons of rock was moved by the explosion. It required a day and a half to load the holes preparatory to making the shot.

Vibration as a result of the blast was felt in this city.

CHURCH WORKERS' FLYING SQUADRON TO VISIT LIMA

A flying Squadron of church speakers will soon appear in Lima. The Allen-co Federation of Christian churches will hold a meeting immediately at the close of the Good Friday services at Trinity M. Ex-Governor Hanley of Indiana inaugurated the work of the squadron years ago, the object being to go from city to city and carry the gospel message.

Rev. D. N. Kelly is president of the federation of churches and the Rev. Webster C. Spayde, secretary.

MAKES FORTUNE ON THREE STEERS

SANTA FE, N. M.—Benjamin F. Pankey was touring the southwest via freight. He got off the train and found himself penniless in a strange region.

He went to work and made enough to buy three steers. Then he went into the cattle business.

That was more than 25 years ago. Today Pankey's fortune is estimated at from $10,000,000 to $14,000,000. And he made it all from the three-steer start.

Pankey is said to be the biggest individual landowner in New Mexico. He was a state senator three years and served one term as New Mexico's lieutenant-governor.

PANKEY

A vertical photographic map has been made of New York, showing office buildings, parks, factories, apartment houses, the water front and even the traffic in the streets just as the city would look, in true proportion, if you could look straight down upon every section of it at a glance.

Similar aerial maps are to be made of Newark, Boston, Kansas City and Harrisburg, Pa. Other cities probably will adopt the new city planning method.

The vertical photograph is called a "mosaic," because it is a series of many photographs, each taken at the exact moment the airplane passes directly over each division, and then fitted together. The map of New York was made in a single flight of 39 minutes, the airplane, with a camera fitted in the floor, being nearly two miles in the air.

MARVELOUS CAMERA
The perfected aerial camera was equipped with an electric timing device and a between-the-lens shutter, which actually saves the brief instant which other camera shutters spend traversing the plate during exposure.

This shutter, which prevents distortion in the vertical photograph, and creates a new method of aerial photography, is the invention of Sherman M. Fairchild.

Municipal engineers say it will save many thousands of dollars and years of engineering work in effecting public improvements.

The map of New York, as a finished-photograph, is 8 feet long and 20 inches wide. It shows 32 square miles of the city.

FIRE UNDERWRITERS AND LUMBERMEN APPROVE LIMA BUILDING CODE MEASURE

Lima's new building code, as designed by a chamber of commerce committee under Peter M. Hulsken, was returned Thursday by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, to which it was submitted.

A report has been made by the board and this will be examined by the chamber of commerce committee some time next week. It is understood that the report is very favorable and that the code has been commended by the board.

A favorable report has also been received by the committee from the National Lumber Manufacturers association, to which the code was submitted. They have placed their official O. K. on the measure.

Following the revising of the code at next week's meeting, it will be submitted to the city commission with a recommendation that it be made a portion of the city's laws.

HARDING HIGHWAY MAY BE CHANGED

State, County Road Men to View Route West of City, Friday

Decision as to the ultimate route of the Harding Highway, between Elida and Delphos, may be made as a result of an inspection to be made Friday, by J. P. Shumaker, and E. C. Blosser, of the state highway department.

The highway heads will go over the road and examine the four grade crossings which are objectionable to the federal government.

Upon their report may rest the possibilities of building the road this year.

County commissioners and Surveyor Walter E. Toy, who will go over the road with the two officials, will urge that the route planned is the most practical.

Elimination of danger at grade crossings can be secured by stationing watchmen and erecting gates in Delphos and Elida. Gates and crossing watchmen now provided at the crossing in Delphos. A watchman is on duty at Elida during the day. If gates are put up and a night watchman employed, the commissioners argue, the situation will be cared for.

Two intermediary crossings, at Scott's Crossing and east of Delphos, can be eliminated by tunnelling. Surveyor Walter E. Toy believes.

The tunnels will have to be let as separate contracts. Until they are put in, the paving would not be put in for a distance of about 100 feet at the approaches to the tracks.

Opposition to swinging the highway north from Elida, to join the Lincoln highway, is developing strength among farmers in the west center of the county. It is stated.

One proposition to eliminate the grade crossings, which meets with favor in some quarters and antagonism in others, is to run the road north of and parallel with the Pennsylvania tracks.

HUME-ROD IS BEST ROUTE FOR TOURISTS TO WAPAK

Lima motorists will do well to take the Hume-Rod when going to Wapakoneta, said Thursday, county surveyor, said Thursday. The road is in better condition in Allen-co than in Auglaize-co, but the same condition is said to apply to the other roads.

An agreement has been reached whereby a number of townships are scraping and grading portions of the Dixie highway and the Allentown-Rod, Toy said. Other roads will be worked as soon as possible.

MAN IS BELIEVED TO BE VICTIM OF WOOD ALCOHOL

Ben Althoff, 30, of 129 E. McKibben-st., was picked up in a serious condition by Motor Cop B. J. Watkins on N. Main-st. at 1:15 p. m. Thursday. Police attribute it to wood alcohol, contained in liquor which they state he had been drinking.

Althoff's drunkenness was preferred against Althoff and he was to be arraigned in criminal court as soon as his physical condition would permit.

JEWELERS IN SESSION

Members of the 24 Carat club, an organization of Lima jewelers, held their monthly dinner meeting at the Barr hotel Thursday night. Those attending the meeting were: J. L. Rose, J. W. Peutz, Morgan Davis, Charles Schneider, Homer Hughes and Warren Basinger.

CONTRACT GIVEN

Ora M. Green & Co. to Erect Five-Story Stener Block

Contracts for the construction of the $100,000 five-story business room and office building, to be erected by the Dr. Steiner on Elizabeth-st., between Market and High-st., have been let.

Main construction will be taken care of by Ora M. Green & Co., plumbing by Williams Bros. and electrical fittings by the Wentworth-Dean Co.

Construction will be of reinforced concrete, with brick and terra cotta facing. It will measure 90 by 100 feet and the lower floors are expected to be finished by Christmas. Work will be started immediately.

DRUNK, RAN AMUCK, PAIR FINED IN POLICE COURT

M. Johnson, 21, of 336 N. McDonnell-st. and John Clark, 20, no residence given, who police say were drunk and ran amuck on W. North-st. Thursday, were each fined $15 in criminal court. They had been released on their own recognizance for appearance before Judge Jackson.

MEN AND MATTERS

Rev. Kirk B. O'Ferrall, rector of Christ church, Episcopal, delivered the sermon at the Lenten services at St. James Episcopal church in Lima, Wednesday evening.

Rev. Father James Clark, pastor of St. Gerard's Catholic church, has returned from Brooklyn, where he held a mission in St. Augustine's Catholic church, one of the large edifices of that city. He has been absent several weeks.

RETURN OF ARBUCKLE PICTURES TO LIMA IS UP TO THEATRE GOERS

It will be up to the movie fans of Lima if they are to see any more "Fatty" Arbuckle pictures, Lew Cunningham, manager of the Faurot theatre, said Thursday.

"Arbuckle has been ordered by the jury which tried him and does serve consideration by the public," Cunningham said. "I will watch the reception given him elsewhere, before showing any of his pictures here. It is up to the public."

Inasmuch as there has never been a formal hearing of the Arbuckle comedies from Lima, members of the city commission have decided they will stop the return of his pictures here.

"We are willing to leave the question up to Lima movie fans. A test showing will prove what the people want," one of the members of the city commission said.

Irish Conference Adjourns Without Agreement, However

DUBLIN—(Associated Press)

Peace conference summoned by Lord Mayor O'Neill of Dublin began its sessions in the Mansion house here at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The proceedings were private. All the leaders of the opposing factions the mayor had invited in an effort to bring about unity, or an understanding to prevent further disorders, were present.

The conference adjourned late in the afternoon until Wednesday next without any argument having been reached.

It is reported the earnest wish was expressed by all the parties represented that no interference occur with public meetings.

COUNTY CLEANUP PLANNED

Villages in Allen-co have been invited to participate in a Cleanup and Paintup campaign to be inaugurated by Dr. J. J. Sutter, county health commissioner April 18. Letters have been mailed to officials. Asking their cooperation.

GALSWORTHY PLAY IS DRAMATIZED BY SHAKESPEARE CLUB

ONE of the most interesting of the meetings of the Shakespeare Study club was that of Thursday afternoon, at the public library.

Mrs. Theodore Scheld was in charge of the program. Act 11 of Galsworthy's "Pigeon" was dramatized. Preceding the dramatization, Mrs. Scheld gave an introductory talk, telling of the first presentation of the "Pigeon" in the Little Theatre in New York about 12 years ago.

Those taking part in the dramatization Thursday included Mrs. Theodore Dysebach as Christopher Weylyn, an artist, who is also charitably sentimental; Mrs. W. L. Rogers, as Ann, his practically minded daughter; Mrs. P. M. Crow as Guinevere Megan, a flower seller and also a woman of the street; Mrs. M. D. Owen as Mr. Megan's husband; Mrs. E. C. Abrams, as Ferrand, a French alien; Mrs. Ross Mullen as Tinson, once a cab man, now dedicated to drink; Mrs. O. T. Lippincott, as Prof. Calway, a professor of sociology; Mrs. C. C. Gilliland as Sir Thomas Hoxton, Justice of the Peace; Mrs. Julia Simpson as Canon Bertley, canon of the church and Mrs. W. G. Warfield as the constable.

Mrs. W. G. Warfield and Mrs. Winona Vinson Forrer were in charge of the plays.

Following the presentation Mrs. Scheld gave an interesting review of another of Galsworthy's works, "Strife," a labor play, which was declared by Emma Goldman, woman anarchist, as the greatest play since Hauptmann's "Weavers."

Mrs. Charles Hartman, of N. Jefferson-st., welcomed a group of guests at her home. The evening was enjoyed in games and music and at a late hour a delicious lunch was served by the hostess.

Those present included Misses Jane and Beatrice Cary, Ruth Ulrich, Emma and Lillian Walt, Teresa Jacobs, Anna Crawford, May Engard, Edith Mowery, Donald Sunderland, Adolph and Carl Hillemeier, Robert Long, Fred Cary, Clarence Miller, Robert Reed, Vern Wells, August Goulet, Frank Hartman, Frank Conway, Charles Hartman, Mr. Markley, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Brown and daughter Ethel and the hostess.

Mrs. Ralph Austin, of N. Collett-st. welcomed the members of the Delphian club at her home, Wednesday. Mrs. Wallace King gave a talk on present day plays, reading excerpts from two well known present day plays, "Anna Christie" by Eugene O'Neill and "Nice People" by Rachel Crothers.

The next meeting of the club will be held in a fortnight with Mrs. E. R. Curtin, Jr., of the Holland-apts.

Lenten services were observed at the meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of Trinity M. E. church at the church Wednesday afternoon.

"Home Missions and the World of Work" was the subject for the afternoon with Mrs. F. L. Kah in charge. Mrs. L. O. Leach led in the devotionals. Chapter VI of the study book was taken up under the leadership of Mrs. E. A. Leason with Mrs. F. L. Kah and Mrs. L. E. Justus assisting.

An interesting talk was given by Mrs. E. E. McCannan, of St. Mary's, and the Rev. Cecil White gave a talk on the "North Broadway Chapel." Music for the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Ross McCallum and the hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. R. O. Bigley, Mrs. J. J. Vyre, Mrs. P. M. Ireland and Mrs. C. A. Harrod.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Burkhardt and daughter, Dorothy, of W. Elm-st., left Wednesday for Toledo, where they will visit over Easter.

Miss Nana Albert of W. Market-st. will spend Easter with friends in Cleveland.

Mrs. John Kendrick and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of N. McDonell-st. are spending the week in Cleveland.

Miss Evelyn Davison, of Detroit, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Davison of W. Market-st. this week. Miss Davison is affiliated with Y. W. C. A. work in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Snyder, of S. West-st. welcomed the members of the Goodwill Euchre club at their home, Tuesday evening. In the playing, Mrs. C. Strobel and C. Bruckoetter held high score while Mrs. E. Brodbeck and C. Strobel were consoling. Guests other than members were Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Eagy.

Members present included Mr. and Mrs. C. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Bruckoetter, Mr. and Mrs. C. Strobel and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder.

The next meeting will be held with Mr. and Mrs. C. Myers, of E. North-st.

Miss Velocia Harper, a student at Miami university, arrived Thursday afternoon to spend the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Harper, S. McDonell-st.

Mrs. G. R. Mell, of S. Broadway welcomed the members of Class No. 5 of the First Christian church at her home, Wednesday afternoon. Members present included Mrs. E. A. Watkins, Mrs. S. F. Mason, Mrs. Cora Helman, Mrs. D. W. Lighty, Mrs. W. A. Marbaugh, Mrs. G. L. Harris, Mrs. E. G. Hall, Mrs. Flora Shaffer, Mrs. Laura Clear, Mrs. Cora Shaffer, Mrs. F. Neuffer and Mrs. C. A. Neuffer. The guests were Mrs. W. E. Rice, Mrs. A. Cramer and Miss Ethel Harbaugh.

Miss Viola C. Jacob, of N. Baxter-st. is visiting with friends and relatives in Toledo.

Mrs. Walter D. Rowlands, of W. North-st., was called to Sacramento, Cal., by the serious illness of her mother.

The League of Women Voters will hold a special meeting at the public library, Thursday at 7 p. m., for the purpose of electing delegates to the national meeting in Baltimore, April 20-29th. The meeting is known as the Pan-American Conference of Women.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Federated Missionary Union will be held at the Y. M. C. A., Saturday at 3 p. m.

Miss Freda Bell, a student at Ursuline Academy, Tipton, Ind., is visiting with her father, Harry C. Bell of W. Market-st., during the Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Miehs, of the Thomas-apts., will leave Friday for Cincinnati, where they will visit over Easter.

WOMEN DECLARE INDEPENDENCE

MRS. NETTIE TUPPER MCGRATH

(BY ROY GIBBONS)

OAK PARK, ILL. (Special) — Mule and elephant, creatures emblematic of the two old political parties, the G. O. P. and Democratic, are soon to have another animal to contend with—maybe a cat—a big, purring Angora.

Puss may get on the ballot as caricature representative of the "Roosevelt Progressives," an organization formed here by nine town mothers for the purpose of pushing women candidates into public office on the strength of feminine votes.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

Organization of the Roosevelt Progressives' reads like some modern feminine version of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Headed by Mrs. Nettie Tupper McGrath, the nine charter founders departed from their household cares and gathered about an indignant round table where they decided that the time was at hand to make woman something more than just a mere political catspaw and paw.

We are sufficiently strong now," says Mrs. McGrath, "to enlist our support behind worthy women who wish to seek their careers in public office."

"The insufferable crudeness of male politicians has forced us into our move, for they have evidenced most patently that what favors they cared to bestow upon women would be merely the unwished for minor portions."

"Their support hereafter will be as unneeded as it will be unwanted."

"The 'Roosevelt Progressive Party' stands for all the true principles of Americanism such as were inculcated by the former president. LET BEST ONES WIN."

"It has neither party affiliation nor prejudiced choice. Our motto is simply this: Let the best one win."

"We have the ballot and suffrage necessary to permit us to stand on our own feet."

"Now is the time for all good women to come to the aid of their party."

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I AM a young man of 20. Recently I met a very sweet and charming young girl and I have begun to admire her immensely. I am anxious to invite her to go to the theatre with me some evening but I have hesitated for one reason. It happens that this girl goes with several girls, whom I went with some time ago. It happened that I quarrelled with these girls and was not very respectful. Now I am afraid to invite her anywhere she will tell these girls and since they do not like me, they will tell her that I should invite her to go some place with me, I should tell her not to say anything about my invitation?

NO, that would be perfectly ridiculous and absurd and would only have a tendency to arouse her curiosity.

From your letter I infer that you were not as respectful and courteous to these young girls as you should have been. In that case you have only yourself to blame if other girls, upon hearing of your past faults, refuse to accept your attentions. If you wish to further your acquaintance with this young girl, invite her to join you some evening in attending the theatre. Be courteous and polite and do not attempt to apologize for asking her and do not ask that she keep your invitation a secret. If she agrees to accept your invitation, let your conduct be such that any girl may feel worthy of your friendship.

Dear Miss Smart: I AM a reader of your paper daily and I read so often about divorces and their evils. For the good of the public, the judges and the officials and all those who concern, I suggest that everyone who applies for a separation be brought in and let the judge hear both sides. Often there may be a reunion instead of a separation. I know of a man who loved his wife. She applied for a divorce and he would not contest it for the reason he did not want to show up her faults. This love he had for her and his children remained quiet. If he had contested the case he would have revealed the divorce in his home with another man, but he would not expose her. She is married again and the man to whom she is married is not equal to her former husband, who is a Christian gentleman and well respected. He was a good husband and he loves her and the children, but says he would rather suffer wrong than to do wrong by exposing her to the public and the children.

I trust that there will be many who will read your interesting letter and will permit their thought to dwell for a few moments on the truth of several of your statements. Divorces have their good and bad.

LEARN A WORD A DAY

TODAY'S word is SOPHISTICATED.

It is pronounced — so-fis-ti-kay-ted, with accent on the second syllable.

It means — worldly wise, versed in the artificial phases of life, experienced.

It comes from—Latin "sophisticare," to make wise, from Greek "sophos," wise.

Companion word—unsophisticated.

It's used like this—"City girls have the reputation of being much more sophisticated than their country cousins."

OUR FIRST YEAR

—BY A BRIDE—

AN EPIC OF CHICKEN SOUP

WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT Should marriage limit individual freedom? This bride and groom think not. The bride has recently exercised her liberty-loving principles to buy a pearl necklace she couldn't afford.

My five most intimate girl friends lunched with me today.

I was tempted for a minute, but they were simply wild about my pearls. Jeanne Allison offered to buy them. Said she would give me twice what I paid. As my college roommate Jeanne takes advantage of her privileges.

I didn't let her have them. They are my first purchase as a wife. I paid for them with the first money my husband gave me. I mean to keep them forever. I'll have them buried with me.

"Twenty-five dollars!" drawled

Bonny Tearle, incredulously. "I've looked to me like twenty thousand dollars!"

Her verdict settled the case. Bonny's opinion about dress and jewels is final with us girls. Boy has things such as only a newly rich millionaire father can buy. Boy has gazed on pearls at Palm Beach and the Riviera and in the best New York and Paris shops.

It was well that my beads are the girls something interesting to talk about for I had nearly ruined my first informal luncheon. Of course, I never can give anything but informals.

Yet I am determined to do that I can, socially, for Jack's sake. Socially is a real investment for an ambitious young business man. I think. And so Jack must know right people.

His family is intellectual. His father is a newspaper man. But one of them would go across the street to play bridge. Rather, they would all go clear across town to avoid a game.

So it's plainly up to me to get Jack to going socially. For business reasons. And with friends like the Allison and Tearles I—well, I couldn't put the case so to Jack. He'd stall! Jack never must know that I have any social ambition for him.

Informal, but "different," my first luncheon was to be. Girls who have butlers at some just love to "play house" sometimes. Jeanne Allison fixed my flowers, but they looked clumsy and I didn't dare to rearrange them!

And Bonny salted the salad too much! And I had already spoiled the soup! So my first luncheon nearly was a failure!

I had planned to serve just a few things, quite in the present fashion, dainty, delicious, elegant things, chicken consommé first.

I spent half of yesterday preparing my chicken broth. It was my initial experiment in soup making. I followed the cook book faithfully, using cold water, simmering for hours, etc. Then, according to directions, I set it in the refrigerator over night so that the fat would harden on top and not a drop of grease remain to float conspicuously as an advertisement of my ignorance.

"Strain it!" said the cook book. And this morning I strained it. But all the time I was wondering whether to wear my pearl beads.

Suddenly I found myself wondering about my kitchen with the dripping strainer in my hand and wondering what to do next. With a shock I came to.

There was nothing to do next! I had poured my precious chicken consommé down the kitchen sink!

HORSERADISH

Sister Mary Suggests Some Appetizing Recipes

Horseradish is one of the best of the early spring appetizers. Use it with roast beef or in sandwiches. Beat some of the shredded root into butter and spread on boiled fish. Cabbage or beet salad is given a tang by the addition of a little horseradish.

Let the root stand in cold water for an hour before shredding. The root is shredded or grated for serving.

HORSERADISH CREAM

Three tablespoons flour, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 cups cream, 1-4 cup grated horseradish, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 1-2 teaspoon sugar.

Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Cook three minutes after all the milk is in. Add salt, pepper, sugar, vinegar and horseradish. Heat thoroughly, but do not let boil. Serve hot with boiled fish or roast beef.

HORSERADISH SAUCE

One-quarter grated horseradish, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, vinegar to make moist.

Mix horseradish, sugar, salt and pepper. Bruise with a wooden potato masher. Pour over vinegar to make moist, cover and let stand an hour before using.

There is a large amount of sulphur in horseradish so wooden or enamel spoons and dishes should be used if possible in its preparation.

HORSERADISH SAUCE (2)

Four tablespoons grated horseradish, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon sugar, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1-4 cup whipping cream.

Mix horseradish, salt, sugar, pepper and vinegar. Whip cream very stiff. Fold in first mixture just before serving.

HORSERADISH BUTTER

One-half cup butter, 1 tablespoon grated horseradish, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon sugar, 1-8 teaspoon pepper.

Mix horseradish, sugar, salt, pepper and lemon juice. There should be enough lemon juice to make the horseradish moist. Work butter till creamy with a fork. Beat in horseradish mixture and continue beating till thick and white. Serve this with broiled or boiled fish.

HORSERADISH SANDWICHES

Remove crusts from white bread. Cut in thin slices. Spread with horseradish butter, add a few sprigs of watercress and cover with a slice of bread spread with plain butter. Cut in narrow long sandwiches to serve. These sandwiches are very good with cold roast beef or a fish salad or sardines for Sunday lunch.

HOT HORSERADISH SAUCE

This is a more economical sauce than the cream sauce, but is very good.

Two tablespoons grated horseradish, 1-2 teaspoon sugar, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon vinegar, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 cup milk, 1-2 teaspoon onion juice, pepper.

Melt butter, stir in flour and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Cook three minutes after all the milk is in. Add salt, pepper, sugar, vinegar and horseradish. Heat thoroughly, but do not let boil. Serve hot with boiled fish or roast beef.

One Shampoo Proves

How the action of Palm and Olive oils transforms your hair

It is interesting to watch the transformation in the appearance of your hair when you shampoo with Palmolive. To discover how glossy and soft it becomes, how fluffy without dryness.

Notice how thoroughly Palmolive cleanses your scalp from all dirt, oil and dandruff. This is the secret of healthy hair. And healthy hair means beauty.

A blend of Palm and Olive oils

The softening effects of olive oil are responsible for the gloss and softness. It produces a mild, penetrating lather which softens and relaxes the scalp and enters each root and hair cell.

The accumulations of dirt and oil are thoroughly removed, not only from the surface but from the tissue of the scalp. Dandruff is penetrated and removed.

Palm oil contributes richness and body to this lather and makes it lasting. Both oils have been famous since Cleopatra's day for their softening, relaxing qualities which no others possess in the same degree.

Prevents dandruff

Dandruff, which doctors call seborrhea and says causes most hair troubles, is not removed by most shampoos.

The dry, oily scales are impervious to usual cleansing. It only makes them more powdery and flaky so that many people think shampooing makes dandruff worse.

But they must be got rid of some way, if you want to keep your hair. Dandruff packs around the roots and interferes with nutrition. This makes even the normal secretion found on every scalp, dangerous to hair health.

The softening, penetrating lather produced by the blending of palm and olive oils loosens the scales, dislodges them from the scalp. The delicate organism of each hair is free for healthy activity.

If you didn't secure the trial 15-cent bottle, mail the coupon direct and we will gladly mail it. We want you to learn how even one Palmolive shampoo transforms your hair.

Your Dollar Distinctive Blouses

It's the little nicety of correct cutting and finishing, the last frill, a bit of embroidery, or sprinkling of color that makes J. C. Penney Company's Blouses so strikingly superior. Whether your preference be crepe de chine, dimity, or voile, Peter Pan or round neck, long or short sleeve, the Blouse you want is here priced temptingly at

98c to $5.90

When you see our array of Blouses you will quickly recognize their distinction of style and perfection of workmanship. Discriminating women cannot fail to appreciate them.

Why? Your dollar in a J. C. PENNEY COMPANY store is not paying for——Overhead expenses on questionable reserve stock that is waiting to be "marked down."

- Deliveries, expensive or inexpensive.
- Doubtful accounts or uncertain collections.

—It is not being held by the merchant in order to give the "Cream" to "Credit Customers" and let

You, a Cash Customer, take the "leavings" in advertised "Sales."

It is the people's confidence in this genuine service of the J. C. PENNEY COMPANY that keeps 312 stores in busy operation every business day of the year.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

CROOKABONE'S FAVOR

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

There stood the ugly little gnome called Crookabone.

THE secret was out at last. "Oh, Nick," we got the right record after all," said Nancy. "It forgot its message because it had a raveling, from the Cloth of Dreams wrapped around it. Now the poor Squeddlums are all tangled up in it and they can't remember a thing either. We can't go away and leave them this way. Look at poor little Mr. Jinks here. He doesn't even remember his own name!"

"But it was the Cloth of Dreams that will forget everything, too," said Nick, "just as we did in the Sorcerer's cave, and then we'll never get to the end of our journey."

"What's that? What's that?" came another voice. And there stood the ugly little gnome called Crookabone.

"Oh, sir," begged Nancy, "please don't say any of your bad magic. We've had so much trouble, and we are at an important turning."

There is constant danger
in an oily skin

A skin that is too oily is easily infected by dust and dirt. Use this treatment to overcome excessive oiliness:

With warm water work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap in your hands. Apply it to your face and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with warm water, then with cold. If possible rub your face for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

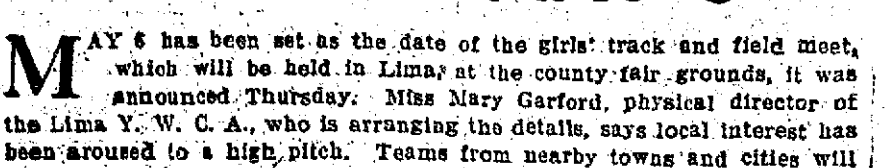

Begin this treatment tonight. Within a week or ten days you will notice a marked improvement. The Andrew Jergens Company.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Scout Executive E. F. Stallenth, put all he had of speed on a baseball he pitched to a boy aged 12. The boy caught it easily, and yelled: "Shoot me a fast one!" The younger generation, as frequently has been remarked, is lacking in respect.

O. J. Rose, realtor, dropped into a barber shop in a downtown store and found that it is run exclusively for children and young women. "But we will make an exception in your case," said the manager. "Come back when you grow enough hair, and we will bob it."

Earl Winget, lightning rod salesman, reports that a genuine ghost has been seen about an abandoned house near his place in Wapakoneta.

"But it's only a medium-sized ghost, and does not make much noise," he says, "so no one pays much attention to it."

O. J. Roush, former police chief, tried to cross between two automobiles, not noticing that one was towing the other. He hung his car up on the tow line, "which seems to be," he says, "an original automobile accident."

Prices and Portions

Hollenden restaurant prices did not advance during the war in proportion to the increases in the cost of food and service.

Wherever possible the increases have been completely cancelled by reductions, and in no case has a price reduction been made at the expense of the size or quality of the portion served.

Don't Worry About Cooks

We do the cooking for you in our two-million dollar kitchen, the cleanest, finest food factory in the world, visited every year by one hundred thousand pilgrims from all lands.

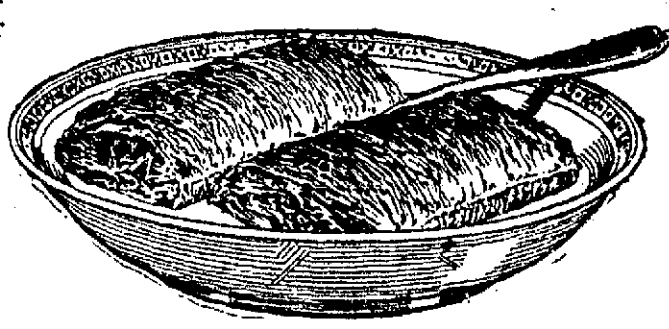

Shredded Wheat

is the whole wheat cooked in steam, drawn into filmy, porous shreds and baked in coal ovens—a process that retains all the body-building elements in the whole wheat grain and makes them digestible in the human stomach. Two Biscuits make a good, nourishing meal. Saves fuel, saves strength, saves time.

For a warm, nourishing meal heat two Biscuits in the oven to restore their crispness; pour hot milk over them, adding a little cream and a dash of salt. Delicious with sliced bananas, prunes, raisins or canned fruits.

TRISCUIT is the Shredded Wheat cracker—a real whole wheat toast—and is eaten with butter or soft cheese.
